TERRIBLE BLOW IS INFLICTED ON GERMAN FORCES

General Haig's Latest Smash Seems to Have Been Greatest Victory of Three Years of War.

THE GERMAN LOSSES ARE TREMENDOUS

London, Oct. 5.—The Germans have undertaken no further counter-attacks against the positions east of Ypres gained by the British in yesterday's offensive, although they kept them under a heavy fire during the night. The British are consolidating their newly won ground.

(By the Associated Press.)

British Front in France and Belgium, Oct. 4.—(Delayed.)—British arms today achieved one of the greatest victories of the war in a tremendous assault begun at dawn against the German positions east and northeast of Ypres.

Indeed, when the whole story of this battle has been told it may take its place as an unequalled triumph of three years of conflict, for each report from the seething cauldron along the front adds to the success recorded.

From a point near the Ypres-Staden railway on the north to the Ypres-Menin highway on the south, the men of the British empire have surged forward with an irresistible force, which at some places carried them to a depth of 2,500 yards over still more of the German keystone positions in the Passchendaele-Gheluvelt ridge system of defense. On the northern wing of the advance the British have reached Poelcapelle and Gravenstafel and have overrun most of the Gravenstafel ridge, which juts out to the west from the Passchendaele-Gheluvelt.

South of the Ypres-Roulers railway the troops are reported to be overlooking the eastern slopes of the main ridge and in some places to have pushed on into the valley below.

Inflict Frightful Losses.
Not only have the British wrenched away many vital strongholds, but they have inflicted almost unprecedented casualties on the enemy.

As the attacking troops went out in shrouded slopes, the vast protective quest of great adventure over the mist

Summary of the Day's War News

British soldiers now are entrenched on the crest of most of the high ground in the famous Ypres salient as a result of a tremendous blow given the Germans yesterday on an eight mile front east and northeast of Ypres. Driven from the high ground the Germans now will be forced to go up hill against the British, while the British artillery throws shells after shell upon the German defenses and lines of communication. Field Marshal Haig's latest stroke surprised his adversaries as they were about to renew their attacks against him. The British barrage moved the massed Germans down and those that remained were annihilated in the rush of the British troops. At no point along the attacking front was the German resistance very great, although the concrete redoubts bristling with machine guns. The villages of Reutel, Nordenhoek, Polderhoek, Molemaars, Broodseinde and Gravenstafel were captured in their entirety and the greater part of Poelcapelle was taken. By the capture of Broodseinde the British established

DEATH CLAIMS JUDGE ERWIN

Chief Justice of the Indiana Supreme Court Succumbs.

HAD BEEN IN POOR
HEALTH SIX MONTHS

But Condition Was Not Regarded as Serious Until Four Weeks Ago.

Judge Richard K. Erwin, fifty-seven years old, chief justice of the Indiana supreme court, died at 2:45 o'clock Friday morning at the St. Joseph hospital following a serious illness of four weeks.

Judge Erwin had not been well for the past six months, but his condition was not regarded as serious until four weeks ago when he was operated on for gall stones. A more serious condition was found at that time than had been expected by the attending surgeons. A cancerous growth on the liver was discovered and following the operation other complications developed causing his death.

However, the judge's life was not despaired of until about ten days ago when he took a sudden change for the worse and gradually grew weaker until the end. He was conscious almost to the last and knew that recovery was impossible. Death had been expected momentarily for the last three or four days. Dr. M. I. Rosenthal stated a week ago that it was only his remarkable vitality which kept him alive.

Judge Erwin also is survived by two brothers and two sisters. They are: William, of Monroeville; Dora and Daniel, of Decatur, and Mrs. Charles Rinear, of Fort Wayne.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Scottish Rite cathedral in this city, with interment in Lindenwood cemetery. Rev. A. G. Neil, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate. The body will lie in state from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Sunday at the Scottish Rite cathedral.

Elected in 1910.
Judge Erwin was elected to the supreme court in 1910, defeating Judge Leander J. Monks, of Winchester, who had served for many years. Judge Erwin, however, was first nominated in 1906, but was defeated together with the rest of the state democratic ticket.

The deceased was a life-long democrat and was prominent in the councils of his party. His advice was always sought in every campaign. How-

NEW WAR TAX LAW COMING RIGHT HOME

Detailed Instructions Are Sent to Postmasters of Country.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Detailed instructions to postmasters on the increased letter mail rates which become effective Nov. 22 under the terms of the war tax bill were issued today by Postmaster General Burleson. They do not apply to most of the foreign countries, which are fixed by international treaties, but they do apply to all domestic mail and under that classification is included mail to Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, the United States Postal agency at Shanghai and all persons in the military service in Europe. The postoffice department issued these instructions:

"Postmasters shall, on and after Nov. 2, see that postage is paid at the rate of three cents an ounce or fraction thereof on letters and other first-class matter except drop letters. All drop letters, that is, letters mailed for delivery from the office at which posted, including those for delivery by city, rural or other carrier of such office, are required to have postage paid on them at the rate of two cents an ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards are required to be prepaid two cents and, therefore, the one cent postal cards must have a one cent stamp affixed to them in addition to one cent stamp impressed on such cards.

"Postcards (private mailing cards) bearing written messages must have two cents postage prepaid on them."

Will Scour South Pacific for
Two Raiders Known to Be Operating.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—With definite information of the presence of two German sea raiders in the south Pacific ocean, announced in dispatches from Samoa to the navy department, a hunt for the commerce destroyers has been set in motion.

The two raiders are manned by the crew of the famous Seeadler, which made her way late last year from Germany through the allies patrol into the Atlantic, southward around South America, preying on shipping, and thence to the south Pacific, where she stranded on Mepeha Island and had to be abandoned.

The Seeadler destroyed three American sailing ships, the schooners A. B. Johnson, Merline, and C. Slade, in the south Pacific. When she stranded the Seeadler had aboard twenty-seven white men and seventeen native prisoners who with the crew, reached shore in safety.

Part of the Seeadler's crew put to sea again in a power sloop armed with machine guns, bombs and tow months' supplies. Early in September the French schooner Lutèce arrived at

GIVES HOME FOR PRIME MINISTERS OF THE KINGDOM

London, Oct. 5.—It is announced that Sir Arthur Hamilton Lee, director of general food production, has offered his 1,500 acre Chequers Court estate, in Bucks, to be used and maintained in perpetuity as the official country residence of British prime ministers. David Lloyd George, the prime minister, in a letter in answer to the offer of Sir Arthur, approved the plan and has authorized the donor of the estate to take whatever steps are necessary to bring the trust into existence. The premier adds that he will attend and preside over the first meeting of the trustees appointed to care for the estate.

SCORES AT THE SENTINEL OFFICE.

Scores will be received and posted at The Sentinel office, on West Wayne street, Saturday afternoon, for the first of the world's series at Chicago. The Sentinel's wire will run direct to White Sox park, and the returns from the games, play by play, will be prompt.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The reserved seats for the world series games at White Sox park having been distributed among the lucky applicants hundreds of baseball fans planned to stand in line tonight in order to have advantageous positions when the office opens at the park for the sale of unreserved seats tomorrow.

The weather predictions for the opening game tomorrow calls for fair weather, with a slight drop in temperature. This, followers of the game say, will not work any hardship on either team, as both squads are in the pink of condition and will not feel any slight change in the weather.

Scalpers who had promised to have plenty of tickets for the opening game were busy today making deliveries to a few customers and returning money to others. Their supply was said to be far less than the demand.

Doubling the Price.
At the first appearance of the tickets at the offices of the brokers $50 was asked for one ticket good for the three games, for which $15 was charged at the park. As the supply of tickets in their hands became exhausted the scalpers began to talk of a raise in price, and it was predicted today that the price might be double the amount first asked before the game is called tomorrow afternoon.

Grandstand reservations selling at the park for $1.50 were not to be had from the scalpers although one broker offered to deliver tickets of this class, Saturday noon at $15 for the three games.

COMMITTEE ORDERS A FORMAL INQUIRY INTO DISLOYALTY

Investigation Limited to the St.
Paul Speech of Wisconsin Senator and Is Preliminary.

ACTION WILL BE STARTED IMMEDIATELY

Washington, Oct. 5.—A formal preliminary inquiry into the alleged disloyal speech of Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, made before the non-partisan league at St. Paul, Minn., a fortnight ago, was ordered today by the senate privileges and elections committee.

Appointment of a sub-committee of five members was directed with authority limited, first to inquire into the correctness of Senator La Follette's speech, and second, into the correctness of his statements made therein.

The limited scope of the inquiry was regarded as temporary action upon the numerous petitions presented to the senate for the Wisconsin senator's expulsion.

Will Report in December.

The sub-committee which probably will be appointed during the day, and will be headed by Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, was ordered to report at the December session of congress. The senate committee took up petitions charging Senator Stone, of Missouri, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee with disloyal statements and decided that the charges made did not warrant any investigation of the Missouri senator.

The senate committee's decision was reached after a two-hour session and with a speech in the senate by Senator La Follette impending. The sub-committee was authorized to request authority to employ stenographers and make other necessary expenditures indicating that formal hearings may be had with possible exception of witnesses at St. Paul. The resolution for authority to make the sub-committee inquiry and for its general authority was scheduled to be brought before the senate later today and many thought it would be the basis of sharp debate in connection with the proposed speech of Senator La Follette replying to the charges of his critics.

Begin Inquiry Next Week.

The sub-committee expected to hold a preliminary meeting late today and begin its inquiry next week. The general expectation was that public hearings would be held at which Senator La Follette would be given an opportunity to be heard. Senator Pomerene made it plain that the sub-committee authority is limited solely to the St. Paul speech and does not extend to any other actions or charges

BELGIAN CITY IS FINED FOR DOING GENEROUS DEEDS

Havre, Oct. 5.—A Belgian official communication issued today says: "Zele, in eastern Flanders, has been fined $9,000 for the giving of food and cigarettes to passing English prisoners. Furthermore, all houses must be shut up at 6 o'clock in the evening, after which nobody is to be allowed in the streets."

GERMANY APPEALS STRONGLY FOR ITS LATEST WAR LOAN

Amsterdam, Oct. 5.—Germany's first great effort to make the new war loan a success takes the form of a full page in the leading newspapers. In part the notice says: "Money needed for subscription. Easy terms, all owing time. You reckon what you can earn in the forthcoming weeks and months, deduct the cost of living and then see what you can lend the fatherland."

WOMAN SHOTS NEGRO WHO KILLED HUSBAND

Widow of Murdered Policeman Takes Vengeance in Kansas City Court.

Kansas City, Oct. 5.—In revenge for the killing of her husband, Arthur N. Dorsett, a city detective, Mrs. Anna Dorsett last night in the crowded Jackson county criminal court room shot and seriously wounded William David Jones, a negro minister, who was on trial for the murder of the officer.

"Thank God, now I am avenged," Mrs. Dorsett cried.
"Get him again," urged Mrs. Helen Schaeffer, Mrs. Dorsett's sister when the negro, still alive, rolled over under a table, and she, too, attempted to fire a shot. Officers in the court room disarmed the women and placed Mrs. Dorsett under arrest on a charge of assault with intent to kill. She was released on a $2,000 bond. Order was restored in the court room and within thirty minutes the judge returned a verdict of guilty against Jones, providing a sentence for fifty years in the state penitentiary. Officer Dorsett, with a fellow detective, John Clifford, was shot by Jones on the night of August 6, while investigating the alleged theft by the negro preacher of a dog. Dorsett was killed almost instantly and Clifford was seriously wounded.

TWO MURDERERS DIE FOR DEATH OF ONE'S WIFE

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 5.—Joseph Castelli, 24, and Francesco Vetere, 35, were hanged early today in state prison for the murder of Castelli's wife, Annie, in New Haven, April 23, 1916. Both men were from New York. The men were convicted of luring Mrs. Castelli to New Haven, where the husband killed her by striking her in the head with an iron bar.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The second Indiana appeal board spent Friday morning deciding a number of cases which came in from several counties. Decisions were made on names from Elkhart, Henry and Randolph counties.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 7,

PSALMS OF DELIVERANCE.

LESSON TEXT—Psalms 35 and 124.
GOLDEN TEXT—They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.—Psalms 126:5.

These Psalms breathe the spirit of the true patriot. The Psalmist sees his afflicted country suffering for the sins of the people, prays for their restoration to the Divine favor, and with the eagle eye of faith anticipates the joyful day of spiritual and temporal blessings because of restoration to the Divine favor. Doubtless such patriotism would be pleasing to the Lord on the part of us all.

Psalm 35.

I. Praises for Mercies Received (vv. 1-3).

Praise is given for

(1) Deliverance from Captivity (v. 1).

He had in mind the specific mercies of a given time; perhaps it was one of the oppressions of the Philistines from which they had been delivered.

(2) Forgiveness of Sin (vv. 2, 3).

"Thou hast forgiven the iniquity—covered all their sin." God's restoration was the proof that he had pardoned. Great indeed was the sin of Jacob, but God's forgiveness was greater. He is peculiarly a God of mercy. Having forgiven the sins his anger is taken away. He stayed his hand from the judgment which would have justly fallen, to show his mercy.

II. Prayer for Restoration From Backsliding (vv. 4-7).

He knew how worthless the outward blessings of the Lord would be unless the people inwardly turned to the Lord. He, therefore, besought the Lord to give them the greater blessing, that of a change of heart. Without the change of heart forgiveness would be futile. A change of heart can only be by God's help.

(1) That God would turn the hearts of his people toward himself (v. 4).

Knowing the people's utter helplessness to turn to God, he cried out to God to save them by turning them to himself. He knew that God's anger could not turn from the people as long as they were impenitent.

(2) That God would take away the very remembrance of their sins (vv. 5-7).

(a) The ending of his anger (v. 5). The desire seems to be that he would wipe out the very marks of his displeasure by not longer allowing punishment to be meted out to them.

(b) The return to the people's joy (v. 6).

Their joy could only be realized through a revival from God. The Psalmist now becomes more bold in his requests.

(c) Shall show them mercy (v. 7).

"Make it visible," is his cry. God's judgment was most real. His desire is that his mercy would be just as real.

III. Exultant Anticipation (vv. 8-13).

Having spoken the sentiment of the repentant people, the poet expresses confidence of the Lord's response. So faithful is God that those who sincerely pray to him can go forward with the assurance of petitions granted.

(1) "He will speak peace" (v. 8).

He knew that a gentle answer would come, but its continuance would depend upon the fidelity of the people. Turning to folly would provoke again his wrath.

(2) Will bring his salvation near (v. 9).

Only as his salvation was near could glory be in the land.

(3) Devise a way by which "Mercy and truth," "Righteousness and peace," may be united (vv. 10, 11).

He did not suggest a way. He may not have known it. Faith now sees the way in Christ. In him such a union has been blessedly effected.

(4) The land shall become fruitful (v. 11).

When sin is removed, temporal prosperity shall follow. Earth's barrenness is due to sin. When the curse is removed, fruitfulness shall follow.

(5) Righteousness shall be the guide of his people (v. 12).

In that golden, glad age God's righteous ways will leave a track in which his own may walk with security.

Psalm 126.

I. The Fact of Zion's Deliverance (vv. 1, 2).

(1) By whom (v. 1). The Lord.

(2) Effect of (vv. 1, 2).

(a) The people were scarcely able to believe it. So sudden and unexpected was their deliverance that it seemed to them as a dream. They expressed their feeling in joyful laughter.

(b) The heathen noted their deliverance as marvelous, and ascribed it to God (v. 2).

Song and Prayer.

II. The Song of the People (v. 3).

They ascribed their deliverance to the Lord and expressed their gratitude in singing God's praise.

III. The Prayer (v. 4).

The people cried to God to visit their restoration with fruitfulness, even as the streams from the South spread out and make a country fruitful.

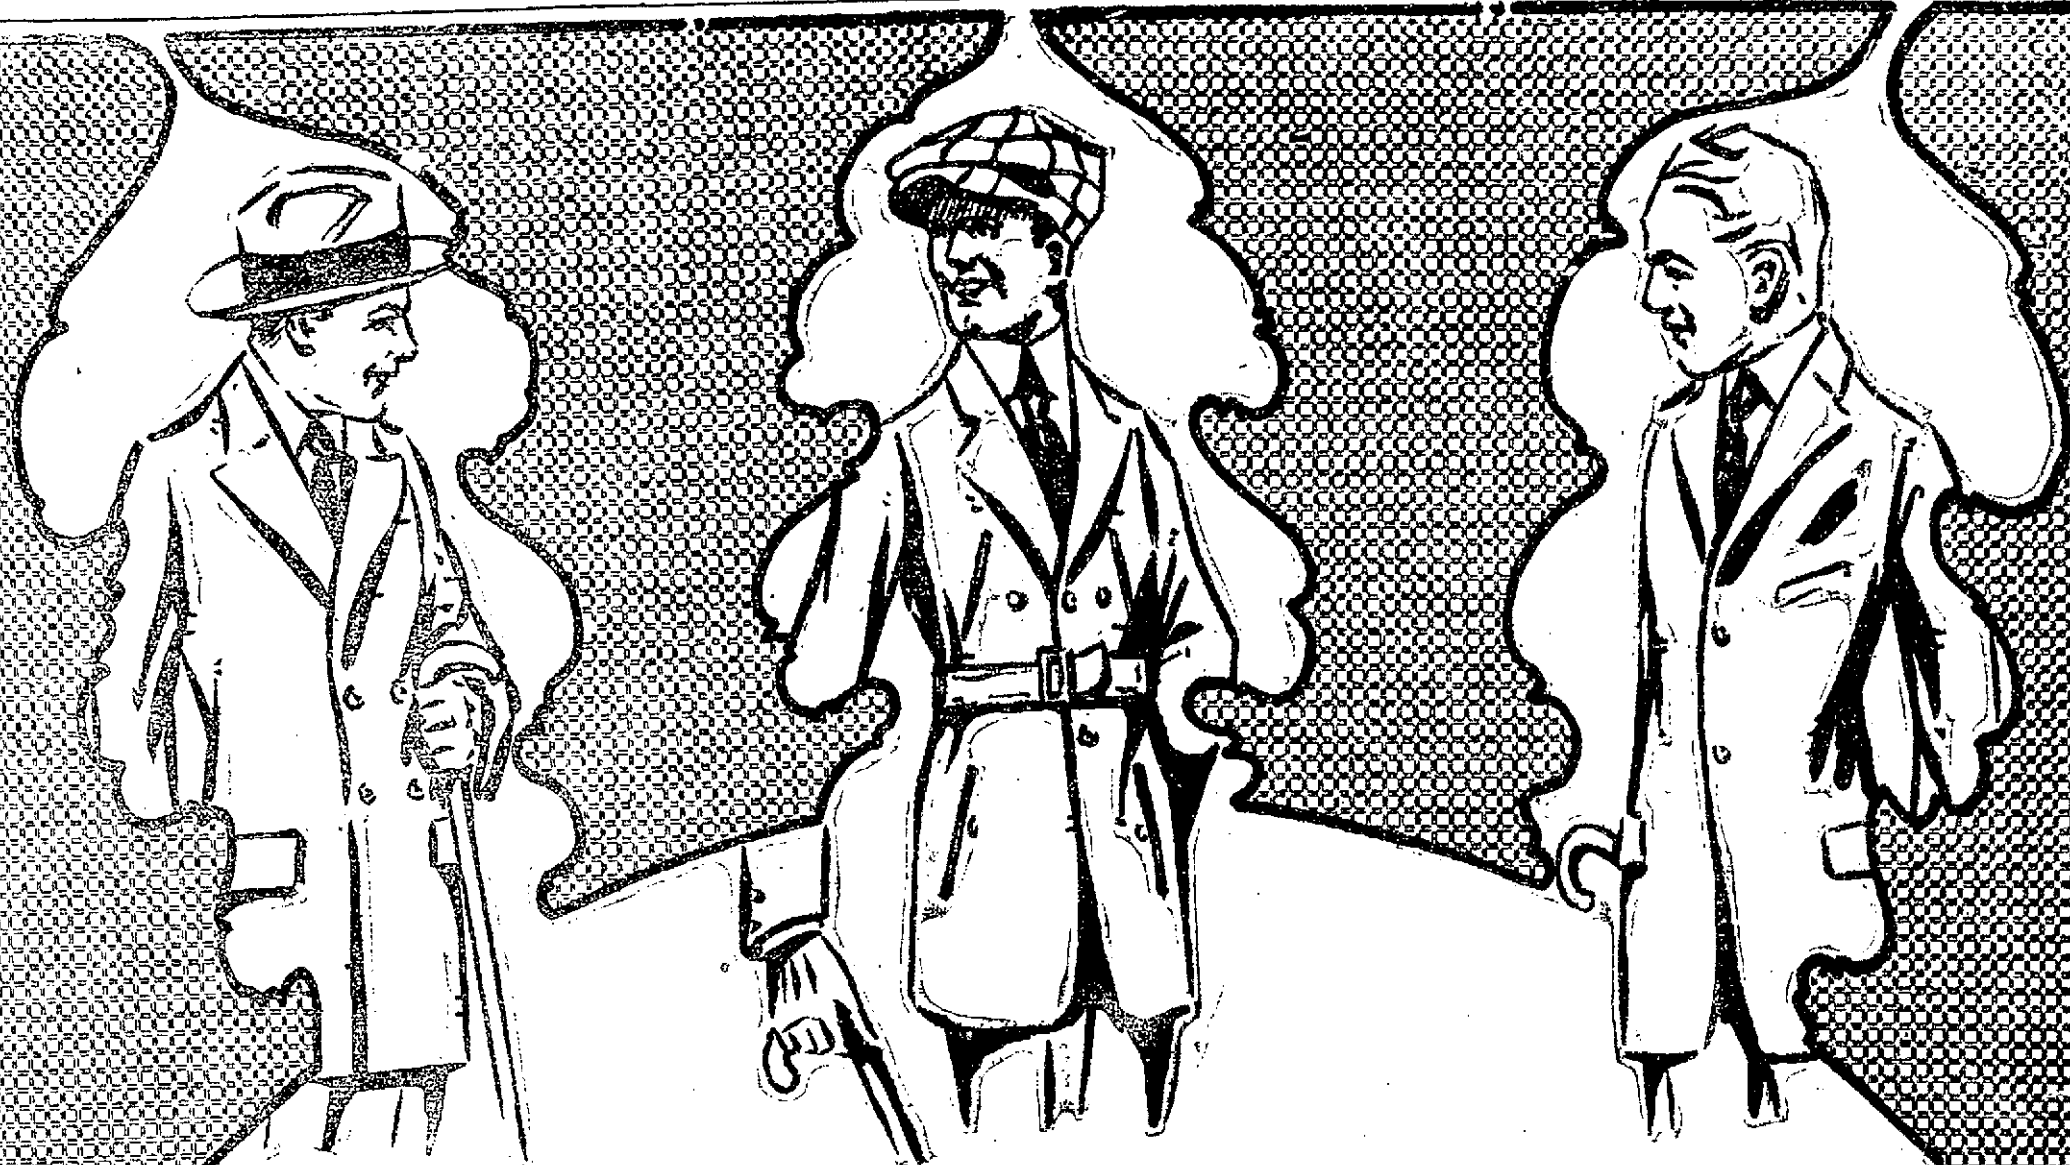

IV. The Promise (vv. 5, 6).

Though the people were still obliged to suffer the consequences of their sins, they were encouraged to go on in sowing though in tears, as the reaping would bring joy.

Sour Stomach.

Eat slowly; masticate your food thoroughly; abstain from meat for a few days; and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meats are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to cut them out.

To Maintain Quality We Had to Advance the Price

You read every day in the newspapers and magazines, where concerns that sell a standard quality of merchandise, and in order to maintain that same quality are forced to advance their price owing to the existing advance prices in material and workmanship.

But still there are a few merchants throughout the country that still say in their advertising columns that they can sell today the same suit or overcoat as they did a year ago at the same price. This you know, and we know that it is an impossibility. For example, take raw wool that formerly sold at 18c and 20c per pound is today 60c and 90c per pound. Yes, in fact everything that enters into the making of clothes has advanced in this proportion of price. Every man knows these facts—for even the white collars you are wearing have advanced in price twice—what is the reason for that—to maintain quality.

It Is a Human Impossibility

To still sell today a good honest made reliable suit or overcoat at $10. If it was possible we certainly would have maintained our old price—being one of the largest distributors of clothing, operating a chain of specially priced stores throughout the entire country—giving us the buying power of millions of yards of cloth reducing the initiative cost of the manufacturing of Sherman's Clothes to a minimum.

Quality---The Pride of Our Clothes

It was never the price of Sherman's Clothes that created such widespread demand for them—it was our excellent quality at the low price, and the same standard of quality we will always maintain at the lowest price possible, for we know that we will always retain the good faith and confidence of our patrons, by always selling them the best there is possible for the money.

Our Factory Price $12.50

Assures every man the greatest value in the world for his money. Men that have bought and worn Sherman's Clothes know what this means—"the greatest value in the world"—that no regular retail clothing store can afford to sell the EQUAL OF VALUE of Sherman's Clothes for less than $18 to $20. WE GUARANTEE YOU A SAVING FROM $5 TO $8. This is made possible by our direct from factory to wearer service, selling Sherman's Clothes to you at only a small wholesale profit, eliminating for you the extra profits of the regular retail clothing merchants.

Hundreds of Patterns and Styles

For you to choose from, our complete stock of men's and young men's suits and overcoats representing every new pattern and style—a size to fit every man and young man gives you this advantage that you can select with ease the suit or overcoat you like the best and only pay $12.50. We have only the one price, our salesmen will not ask you to pay "just a little more" in order for you to get the kind of suit or overcoat you like best.

Come To-day or To-morrow

Come here and convince yourself of our wonderful value. You will not dispute the fact that buying Sherman's Clothes saves you $5 to $8. Every garment backed by our iron clad guarantee of absolute satisfaction in every detail or your money back.

REMEMBER THIS.—If after you purchase a Sherman garment you feel you have not a $18 or $20 garment and have saved $5 to $8, your money will be here waiting to go back into your pocket.

THE BOLO PASHA MESS.

The Bolo Pasha disclosures are more important as confirmations than as revelations. They go to show further to what extent Count von Bernstorff was employing himself while the kaiser's ambassador to the United States in the devious and dark ways of German diplomacy.

The facts that are brought out in connection with the work of Bolo Pasha in this country have an interest entirely their own, but this is subordinate to the proof furnished that it was through Ambassador von Bernstorff the German government was placing more than a million and a half dollars in the hands of a Levantine adventurer for the purpose of corrupting opinion in France and, as seems to be indicated, of furthering German propaganda in the United States.

Still more important are these disclosures as adding to the already mountainous accumulation of proof that Prussian diplomacy is a thing with which no honorable nation can ever again have anything to do or place any degree of trust in. It all comes along and fits in with the revelations lately made of Berlin's way of doing business with the world. The Zimmermann note, the treacherous abuse of Argentina's friendship, the now known extent and detail of von Bernstorff's work in this country, the astounding and yet amusing play of the minor lights of history as they flame garishly from the "Willy-Nicky" notes exchanged by the kaiser and the czar some years back—in short, becomes an essential and concordant part of all that mankind has been finding out during the past three years of the genius and morals of the governing classes in Prussia.

Prussianism in diplomacy is the counterpart and fellow of that spirit that animates in narrow political elements in America and works consistently upon the petty abomination that "every man has his price." The diplomats from Berlin have carried the practice of that code into every capital of the world. It is the ruling spirit in the German chancellery where it is coupled with the undeviating principle that all means are justified by the end.

It is coarse, crude, brutal work. Its elements are lying, intrigue, treachery and thorough moral abandonment. We repeat, as we have said before, that the Prussian government is as much an anachronism as the government of Turkey. It has no business in modern politics. It has been outlawed by the centuries. It disgraces and bedevils the society of nations. It brought on this war just as it will bring on the next war if it shall survive this trial. It should be destroyed by the people upon whom it sits and in any event it must be destroyed by the nations with whom it is at war.

Diplomacy that gets on by the employment of such creatures as the renegade Bolo Pasha is no good thing for the world at any time or place under any circumstances, in war or in peace.

DEATH OF JUDGE ERWIN.

Those who intimately knew the man will be grief-stricken by knowledge that Judge Richard K. Erwin, chief justice of the Indiana supreme court, is dead. He had those qualities which invite and cultivate strong attachments and it had been his good fortune to have close contact with many men, not only here in his home city, but in Decatur, where he long resided, and, indeed, throughout the state. We believe that not lately has there passed on any public man of Indiana whose going left so many feeling a genuine sense of personal bereavement as must be the case in Judge Erwin's death.

Judge Erwin was an eminent lawyer. He was an able jurist. He was a just judge. He had occupied to his own honor and to the public usefulness and advantage the highest judicial position it is in the power of the people of Indiana to bestow. In all his public relations, which were many, he had fulfilled all expectations and justified all confidence. Yet we think it was the greater achievement of his life that he won the profound trust and the sincere affection of so large a number of people whose relations with him were solely personal and entirely without interest of self either on his part or on theirs. He was a fine, vigorous, upstanding man; hearty in manner, genuine in spirit, rugged in his integrity and steadfast in his honor. He will be missed by all who knew him well.

Just at this time Judge Erwin's death is peculiarly a public loss to the state. Important matters now pend before the supreme court and press for decision. The public interest would be better served if the late chief justice were there to aid in the conclusion of these momentous problems.

THE BATTLE IN FLANDERS.

What appears to be one of the most important movements of the great war is now being successfully pressed by General Haig on the west front. The latest phase of the battle of Flanders shows immense results for the British drive, not the least of which is the terrible loss sustained by the army of Prince Rupprecht.

But of greater interest and perhaps of greater moment is the disclosure made that the resisting power of the Germans is declining. While there was terrific fighting, the British advance was steadfast. The Germans could not halt it. The objectives were attained and held. In the earlier days of the campaign the German armies were not so readily pressed back. When they were forced to give ground the reactions were powerful and the recoveries sometimes important. The reports from the battlefield say that the counter-attacks by Prince Rupprecht were weak and resulted in nothing whatever save to add to his already tremendous losses. This is significant beyond the common, because the British gains are of positions vital to the German lines.

All descriptions agree that the British assault was in every respect infernal. Such artillery preparation has hardly marked any offensive and it opened the way for the victorious assault of Haig's battalions. Slowly but surely the entente is blasting the German line to pieces and the recent predictions that a new "strategic retreat" by the Germans in order to shorten their line will bring evacuation of a considerable extent of territory in France and Flanders.

After having indicated that it knew when it had enough, the house faced about and decided to have a committee investigation of Tom Hefflin's charges that certain of his colleagues in that body had "acted suspiciously" and might have had a hand in von Bernstorff's slush fund disbursements. If the thing is to be investigated at all it should be done with thoroughness. There should be thorough purpose to establish the truth—to uncover disloyalty, treason and corruption, if any exist, or to fully exonerate any members under the taint of suspicion—and not merely to go far enough to put Congressman Hefflin in a hole. That, it is not unreasonable to surmise, is the idea and purpose of this movement to have an investigation. Such an investigation would be worse than a farce, for it would be in some of its aspects malicious and nothing else.

The war tax law is in effect and there is as much variety in the inquiries as to what it means as there are provisions in the law. It will raise the money and there will be no attempt to get away from it, but there will be much merit in some attempt by the government to get a statement of the act, clearing up all its provisions and operations, so that the average fellow can tell just what it must mean to him. A revenue law is an abstruse matter at its best, but this enactment appears to have more kinks, knots and entanglements than the average. The money will roll in the more readily if the victims of the war mulct are made acquainted at an early day with what the law requires of them.

Bolo Pasha is a moslemized Frenchman, who has been engaged in all sorts of crooked business from plain swindling to international con games. That the Berlin foreign office should hook up with him in its sordid diplomatic program is not strange, but that any American gentlemen of standing, self-respect and patriotic sentiments should have been ensnared by the Bolo net is more startling. There seems to be uneasiness here and there in some parts of the country as to just what the Bolo disclosures are at length going to lay bare.

If the income tax hits you rejoice. Besides the distinction there is the material joy in having it to be taxed.

High in the pine tree tops, the wind,
Crying and groaning,
Dashes, the rain in the laced boughs,
Sighing and moaning.

From the fisher's cottage, the candle light,
In the darkness leaping,
Shows at the easement the lonely one
Sobbing and weeping.

At dawn, the waves that wash on the shore,
Creeping and crawling,
Moan with the wind and the fisher's wife,
Screaming and calling.

IS GERMANY TRYING TO WIPE OUT FRENCH RACE BY PRACTICING CRUELTY

BY MILTON BRONNER.

The horrible German atrocities upon French war prisoners, and the anxiety with which France is looking to the United States, are vividly portrayed in a letter to Prof. Francesco Ventresca, a translator in the war department, from Prof. Henri Chomard, who in happier days was an instructor in the Lycee of Bourgen-Bresse, near the Jura mountains. Chomard and Ventresca in early manhood taught in German schools together and so knew German thoroughly.

For three years Chomard has been chief French censor at Pontarlier, one of the most important frontier posts; all mail between France and Switzerland has gone through his hands.

Chomard has had many opportunities to get news of what Germany is doing to Frenchmen in its power. Summing up he says:

"The Germans are treating our prisoners in a manner beyond human endurance. Tens of thousands of French soldiers in Germany have already died. The others will be returned all broken up and worn out."

"According to a German official report, published a year ago, 10,000 of our soldiers were then filling the insane asylums of Germany."

"Under all sorts of pretexts they are inflicting terrible reprisals. Last year they sent 20,000 to Russian Poland. This year they sent 25,000 to the French front, where they were exposed to the fire from our guns. They were packed in barracks too small to afford comfort, and had no food. They were not allowed to receive parcels from home and were made to work about 100 yards behind the German first lines."

"Of the 25,000, nearly 7,000 were killed by our projectiles or perished from disease. The others were taken back to Germany in a pitiful condition, crippled for the rest of their lives."

"The Germans practice their reprisals especially upon officers and intellectuals. The French prisoners, save the yellow color. Then there is an article styled 'The cow inside a bag,' which is purchased largely at 37 cents for a small paper bagful. It is nothing more than a mixture of chalk, wood, flour, and plaster of paris. Truly a horrible compound. To feed children on it is Herodian massacre, nothing else."

A special correspondent of the Berlin Post in Brussels writes home:

"One of the most curious effects of the war is to be noticed in Brussels. The streets, the houses, the people one meets are the same, yet on indefinable spirit of change pervades everything."

"This is seen in the strange glances which the people bestow on a passing German, in their determined refusal to make room for the conqueror on the tramways, in the furtive whispering when one of the barbarians enters a public conveyance or a cafe."

"In a large hall where dancing was going on German soldiers sat round the room, but the girls were fat, coarsely built, and badly dressed. They danced even more badly, and they manifested exactly the same unsympathetic attitude toward Germans that I had met with among the passersby in the street and the passengers on the tram cars."

"I came to the conclusion that we shall never win over the esteem and love of the Belgian people. The Flemings, indeed, has sadly degenerated, and his appreciation of the high honor of belonging by origin to the Teutonic tribes has entirely vanished. He has become estranged from Mother Germania!"

WHY THE PACIFIST?

(Milwaukee, Wis., Evening Wisconsin)

"Why the pacifist?" asks Leslie's Weekly. Answering its own question, in a way, it observes:

"We went into the war grudgingly and late. The presidential election was largely won on the unpatriotic plea that President Wilson had kept us out of war. The spread of pacifism dates from the time of the vigorous speech of ex-Gov. Glynn, as temporary chairman of the St. Louis convention, when he eulogized the president on the ground that he had kept us out of war. That speech, eloquent and powerful as it was, put a heavy discount on preparedness. It gave Germany a wrong impression of our national feeling and made it believe that we had no war spirit. Then followed the president's statement, misinterpreted as he afterward explained, that 'we are too proud to fight.'

The position is taken that mistakes were made in not sending Col. Roosevelt abroad at the head of a body of troops, and in removing Gen. Wood from the center of military activity to a post in the south. The article proceeds:

"Then came the clashes over the building of ships, over food control legislation, and finally the mess over the fixing of prices of supplies, not only for our government, but also for all the allies. No wonder that the country was discouraged and the pacifists emboldened. It is time for us all, from the president down, to get into this war 'with both feet' and to push it for all we are worth. This is the surest and quickest way to bring about a permanent and lasting peace, and make it a peace with victory."

The humming bird, brilliant in color and the smallest of birds, is peculiar to the American continent. There are about seventy-five genera and more than 400 species. The largest of these is eight and one-half inches, the smallest about two and three-eighths inches in length.

Seventeen species of humming birds are summer visitors in the United States. These winter from southern Florida to Central America. Thousands of humming bird skins are exported annually from Brazil, Venezuela and Guiana to be used in the making of ornaments.

After our revolutionary war, while Lafayette was trying to reach Holland to escape enemies at home, he was seized by the Austrian government and imprisoned as a dangerous character. His wife, also, was imprisoned at Paris during the reign of terror, but succeeded in getting to Vienna and pleaded with the emperor for her husband's release. Lafayette's friends in this country did what they could in his behalf, and finally, on August 25, 1797, he was set at liberty after five years' imprisonment in a dungeon.

During this imprisonment two American friends of Lafayette, Francis K. Hugger, of Charleston, S. C., and Dr. Eric Bollman, made a daring attempt to liberate him, for which they were imprisoned.

Save You Hair! Double Its Beauty in Just a Few Moments.

25-cent "Danderine" Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers or rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

Peculiar Phase of German Loan to Greece Brought to Light.

Athens, Oct. 5.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The German advance of $20,000,000 to the recent government of King Constantine, was a financial transaction quite out of the ordinary, as now developed under the fierce scrutiny of the Venizelos government which displaced the Constantine regime. As summed up by M. Venizelos himself, the peculiar features were: While a huge sum was involved, yet no real money passed from Berlin to Athens, as it was all a credit transaction to be settled "after the war." Also, although no money passed, Greece finds itself obligated for this $20,000,000, and is paying interest on it at 8 per cent. Finally, as stated by Venizelos, the depreciation of the German mark was such that of the $20,000,000 only $12,000,000 was realized, making a net loss of $8,000,000. The German advance was made about a year ago, at the time the Constantine ministry needed funds to pay the army which had been mobilized. For some reason, however, it was decided to make it a secret transaction, and not inscribe it in the budget or report it to parliament along with other loans. This was about the time the entente allies presented an ultimatum demanding the demobilization of the Greek army, which probably accounts for the loan being kept secret.

In laying before parliament details of the affair, M. Venizelos said that Germany had in effect said: "In these critical times, we cannot advance actual money. But you can order your government bank to print $20,000,000 of bank notes, and we will order our bank to open a credit for $20,000,000, payable not today but at the end of the war." This was actually carried out, Mr. Venizelos explained, the printing process at Athens turning out the $20,000,000 in bills, based on the Berlin deposit, but without any transfer of money. The interest began to run at once. The Bank of Greece is the storm-center of this agitation over the German loan, as it negotiated the loan and issued the $20,000,000 of paper money. It is a government bank, and as such it has a status throughout Europe. M. Venizelos now announces that the management of the bank is to be entirely overhauled. A new manager is to be brought from abroad, probably from one of the allied capitals so he will be less sympathetic toward advances from Germany. The government will also oppose the extension of the bank's charter, M. Venizelos also announces. The German advance to the Constantine regime has thus become one of the chief political and financial sensations of the day, and has culminated in a complete turn-over of the government bank which is the corner-stone of Greece's financial operations. MANY YEOMEN HERE FOR BIG MEETING

Large Number of Candidates Initiated by Degree Staff from No. 376.

The meeting held Thursday night by the Yeomen lodge was a grand success and was enjoyed by everybody that attended. The meeting consisted of a union meeting of the three local homesteads of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen.

A class adoption of a large number of candidates was the feature of the evening. The work being exemplified by the degree staff of Homestead, No. 376.

A large delegation of archers of Decatur Homestead, No. 1698, were present and also a large number of members from many of the surrounding homesteads.

Among those present were Grand Foreman George H. Frink, of Des Moines, Iowa, and State Manager A. Morgan Duke and wife.

After class adoption a very interesting address upon the future outlook of the society was delivered by the Hon. Grand Foreman Bruber Frink and short addresses by the state manager and other officers of the different homesteads.

The meeting Thursday night was one of the several meetings of the kind which are being planned for this coming winter's entertainment and plans are also being arranged for the annual children's festival, which will be held in the Odd Fellows' hall the latter part of this month.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the sessions.

EVEN FOOTBALLS AND HAIR DYES ARE TAXED

Imitation Jewelry Also Falls
Under Latest War Revenue Law.

Football, hair dyes, imitation jewelry, playing cards, and face powders must bear the war tax along with automobiles and talking machines, according to the order received at the Fort Wayne revenue office, Friday.

The new revenue bill, passed by congress several weeks ago, became effective on October 4. It places a manufacturer's tax upon a list of articles which appear in the pastime of every active American. The bill also places a revenue, of half the manufacturer's tax, on all the stipulated goods which may be on the "floor" of wholesale and job houses.

Instructions to Officers.
Instructions to local revenue officers reads that the following taxes are on articles sold by manufacturers, producers and importers:

(a) Upon all automobiles, automobile trucks, automobile wagons and motorcycles a tax equivalent to three per cent of the price for which sold;

(b) Upon all piano players, graphophones, phonographs, talking machines and records used in connection with any musical instrument, piano player, graphophone, phonograph, or talking machine, a tax equivalent to 3 per cent of the price for which sold;

(c) Upon all moving picture films (which have not been exposed) a tax equivalent to one-fourth of one per cent per linear foot;

(d) Upon all positive moving picture films (containing a picture ready for projection) sold or leased by the manufacturer, producer or importer a tax equivalent to one-half of one per cent per linear foot;

(e) Upon any article commonly or commercially known as jewelry whether real or imitation, a tax equivalent to 3 per cent of the price for which sold;

(f) Upon all tennis rackets, golf clubs, baseball bats, lacrosse sticks, balls of all kinds, including baseballs, footballs, tennis, golf, lacrosse, billiard and pool balls, fishing rods and reels, billiard and pool tables, chess and checker boards and pieces, dice, games and parts of games, except playing cards and children's toys and games, a tax equivalent to 3 per cent of the price for which sold.

(g) Upon all perfumes, essences, extracts, toilet waters, cosmetics, petroleum jellies, hair oils, pomades, hair dressings, hair restoratives, hair dyes, tooth and mouth washes, dentifrices, tooth pastes, aromatic cachous, toilet soaps and powders of any similar substance, article or preparation by whatever name known or distinguished, upon all of the above which are used or applied or intended to be used or applied for toilet purposes a tax equivalent to 2 per cent of the price for which sold.

(h) Upon all pills, tablets, powders, tinctures, troches or lozenges, syrups, medicinal cordials or bitters, anodynes, tonics, plasters, liniments, salves, ointments, pastes, drops, waters (except those taxed under section 313 of this act) essences, spirits, oils and all medicinal preparations, compounds or compositions whatsoever the manufacture or producer of which claims to have any private formula, secret or occult art for making or preparing the same or has or claims to have any exclusive right or title to the making or preparing of the same or which are prepared, uttered, vended or exposed for sale under any letters patent or trade mark or which is prepared by any formula, published or unpublished or held out or recommended to the public by the makers, vendors or proprietors thereof as proprietary medicines or medicinal proprietary articles or preparations or as remedies or specifics for any disease, diseases or affections whatever affecting the human or animal body, a tax equivalent to 2 per cent of the price for which sold.

(i) Upon all chewing gum or substitute therefor a tax equivalent to two per cent of the price for which sold.

(j) Upon all cameras a tax equivalent to three per cent of the price for which sold.

Sworn returns by the manufacturer, producer or importer of the above mentioned articles are to be made monthly in duplicate and the tax is to be collected by assessment.

The full tax provided by the above subdivisions applies to stocks held by manufacturers, producers or importers (wherever the same may be located the day the law goes into effect) when such stocks are sold.

The law further provides a "floor tax" of one-half the above rates of tax upon all articles mentioned in subdivisions a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, i, j, which on the day this act takes effect are held and intended for sale by jobbers and wholesalers, who are not manufacturers, producers or importers.

You are hereby directed to make inventory if you are a wholesaler or jobber of articles subject to the "floor tax," as of the date the law becomes effective (October 4, 1917), said inventories to be verified by internal revenue officers in the same manner as inventories in the case of liquor dealers and dealers in tobacco.

The conference reports provides that sworn returns be made by wholesalers and jobbers of the articles subject to "floor tax" within thirty days after the passage of the act.

Quartered Oak
Dresser $21.75

This Quartered Oak Colonial Dresser is extremely massive in proportion. The heavy plank top and heavy mirror standards give it an unusually fine appearance. It has large French plate beveled mirror, two large and two small drawers, with wood knobs, and is finely polished.

Royal Axminster
Rug $31.85

These Rugs are shown in the new colorings and the latest designs. The best known makes are included in the showing. They are long napped Rugs, and all are of the finest qualities. Everyone knows that rug prices have advanced tremendously during the past year, but these particular Rugs are marked so low that they would have been considered remarkable values even before the advance came.

The Practical Lamp for a Home

Silk Shades—Mahogany Finish

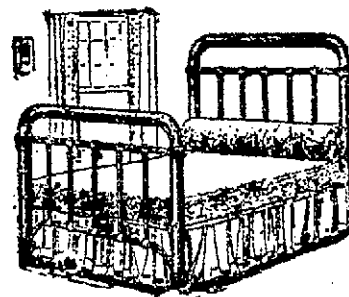

A Small Payment Delivers the Lamps

These Floor Lamps, or Standing Lamps, or Piano Lamps, as they are sometimes called, have two advantages in a home. First, it adds to the cheerfulness of any room you use it in. Second, it gives you light where you need it. In reading, in sewing, or in playing the piano, you have a good strong light just where you want it. That's why these Lamps are practical.

When you see these Lamps displayed in our store you will be puzzled to know how we can sell them at this price, and no wonder. The shades are of silk in various soft tones of rose, blue, old gold, etc., and they are finished in a beautiful mahogany, that no one but an expert could distinguish from the finish on lamps of five times this price. If you were asked to guess their price you would probably say "$30.00." They have sold for $30.00 but were excellent values for that price.

In addition to the special price on these Lamps you may take advantage of our usual generous credit terms in buying one of them. We do not believe in offering credit at all times except when we have something unusually good in the way of values and then demanding cash. You may have any one of these Lamps delivered to your home for a small cash payment, and the balance may be paid in terms to suit your own convenience.

2-Inch Continuous
Post Iron Bed $6.85

This Bed comes in either a Vernis Martin, which is the gold bronze finish, or the white enamel finish. It is a style that will add to the appearance of any bedroom. The 2-inch continuous posts make it a bed that is not only very attractive, but it will be equally as durable. It is strong and substantial and has the appearance of being worth much more than this reasonable price we are asking for it.

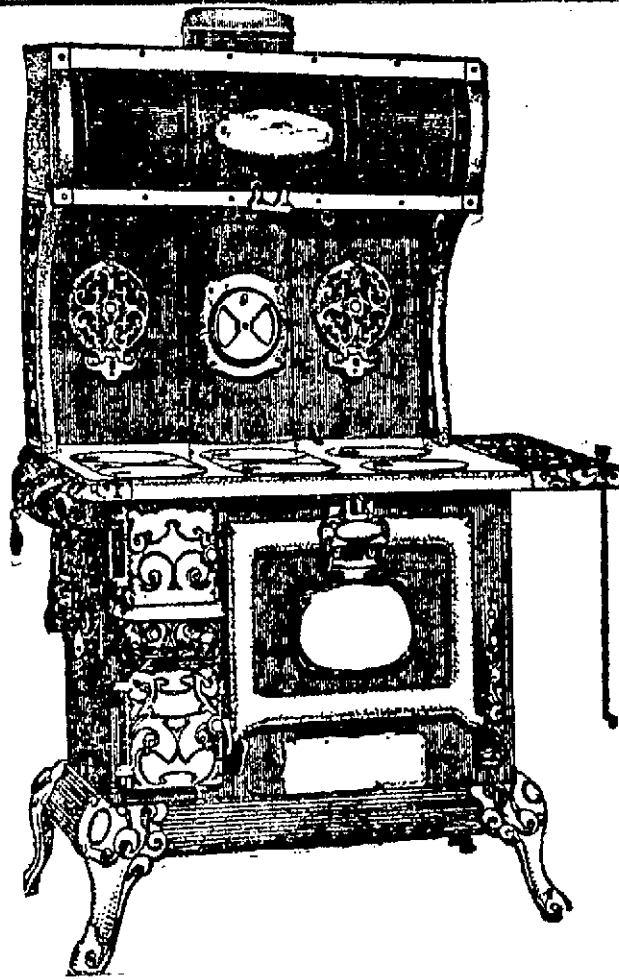

McDougal Kitchen
Cabinet $34.50

This McDougal Auto Front Kitchen Cabinet is the greatest saver of energy imaginable. Every woman who possesses one agrees that cooking becomes almost a pleasure with it. It is head and shoulders above all other makes in labor saving.

Elite Range

$28.75

This "Elite" Range is one that is not only backed up by the maker's guarantee, but by our own, too. The entire chain of stores with whom we club our purchasing have been selling this stove for years, and we have all agreed that it is the best kitchen range on the market today.

It has a large warming closet, a spacious oven and a big, roomy firebox. You can go away for almost any reasonable length of time and come back to find it has held fire perfectly.

The consumption of fuel is surprisingly little in this stove. The oven is well light perfect in its baking qualities. The "Elite" is an all-around winner in stoves.

Famous "Howard" Heater $15.85

The Howard Principle

All Howard Overdraft Heaters are built airtight. All ash doors and draft regulators, together with their frames, are fitted on centrifugal facing machines, making fittings mechanically perfect. They control perfectly the admission of air. Howard bases and tops are cast-iron. The fitting at top, bottom and at all joints in mechanically tight. This perfect construction is the secret of the wonderful success of this wonderful line.

The Construction

Howard Overdraft Heaters' bodies are made of Armo rust-resisting iron, highly polished and very durable. All cast parts are made of pure gray iron and are as durable as scientific mixture can make them. Duplex grates are used in all oval stoves and round cone center grates in all round stoves. All Howard stoves are equipped with ash pans, making them sanitary and easily cleaned.

YOUTH RIDES WHEEL
AGAINST STREET CAR

Joseph Auer in a Critical
State at Hope Hospital.

Recovery is uncertain for Joseph Auer, 15, cigarmaker, son of Jacob Auer, 2447 John street, who collided with a street car while riding his bicycle on East Creighton avenue, near Wallace street, at 6 o'clock Thursday evening. The youth suffers from four broken ribs, a mangled left arm and injuries about the head. Physicians have hopes of saving his life.

Auer was riding his bicycle home from work when the accident occurred. He was riding east on East Creighton avenue. E. W. France, motorman on the East Creighton car which struck the young man, reports that he was running his car at modern speed west on the avenue. When the car Auer swerved in his course and ran against the front of the street car, according to the car motorman.

The youth was hurled from his wheel. When the car was stopped he lay against the car guard. He was rendered unconscious for several minutes on East Creighton avenue, near Hope hospital, where he is in charge of three physicians.

No report of the accident has been made at police headquarters. Official investigation may follow this phase of neglect, the police say.

UNABLE TO WITHSTAND SHOCK OF OPERATION

Mrs. W. Sherman Cutshall Succumbs at the Lutheran Hospital.

Mrs. W. Sherman Cutshall, 202 East Williams street, wife of the republican candidate for mayor of Fort Wayne, passed away at the Lutheran hospital at 2 o'clock Friday morning. Death was the result of goiter, which had poisoned her system.

Mrs. Cutshall had been suffering for a long time from the effects of goiter and was taken to the hospital where an operation was performed last Tuesday. The deceased was unable to withstand the shock of the operation and grew gradually weaker until the time of her death.

Mrs. Cutshall, formerly Miss Harriet C. Myers, was born May 1, 1873, in Cumberland, Md. After the death of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Myers, she came to this city. She was united in marriage to W. Sherman Cutshall Sept. 20, 1891.

Surviving besides a host of saddened friends are the husband, two children, George and Helen, and three brothers, Charles M. and Lord W. Myers, of Cumberland, Md., and C. C. Myers, of Altoona, Pa.

HUNDREDS OF VOTERS IN LAST HOUR RUSH

City Hall Office Will Be Open Until Late Hour for Rest of Week.

Hundreds of voters have awakened to their civic duty at the eleventh hour. Election clerks in the city hall office are swamped by heaps of unfiled registration sheets which have been turned in during the past six hours. From all parts of the city comes the story of stampedes upon the registration centers.

Seven clerks are now employed in the city hall office to care for the last hour signers and to file registered slips.

The city hall center will be opened until 9 o'clock on Friday and Saturday night to allow registrations.

No registrations can be made after Monday evening at 6 o'clock.

There are yet 5,000 registrations to come in if the entire quota of the city is to be signed up. Election clerks state that they find many citizens who believe that their signing for the constitutional convention and county election protects their votes. Persons must sign for the city election separately if they would vote in Fort Wayne.

Surviving besides a host of saddened friends are the husband, two children, George and Helen, and three brothers, Charles M. and Lord W. Myers, of Cumberland, Md., and C. C. Myers, of Altoona, Pa.

Given Commission As a Lieutenant On the Death of the Late Richard K. Erwin, Chief Justice.

GEORGE W. MARTIN.

George W. Martin, connected with the Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Co., has received his commission as first lieutenant of the engineering corps. Mr. Martin came to Fort Wayne last March and during his few months residence here has made a host of friends who will be glad to hear of his success in army life.

The following men and their new rank follows: Ernest F. Fruechte, sergeant major, 17th battalion; Frank Edgell and Larry D. Russell, of the 65th company, sergeants; James V. Stouder, Herman J. Lauer, of the 65th company, corporals; Elvin C. Bair, Alphonse L. Beuret, Myrl D. Fairman, Elmer J. Grosh and Edward J. Harcken, all of the 65th company, corporals; Edward D. Pierre and Theodore Stroufe, of the 65th company, corporals.

William R. Devlin and Alva R. Kennedy, of the 65th company, both of Fort Wayne, were made first class privates effective October 1, 1917.

Four men from Adams and Jay counties of the 65th company also were appointed corporals effective the same date. They are Ephraim K. Spade, Berlie Hammons, Edwin M. Brillman and Edward Weisling.

All of them have provided themselves with chevrons and the company has now taken on a real military aspect. All the men who are in camp now have also been provided with uniforms.

James V. Stouder and Roach, of Fort Wayne, visited Camp Taylor and the Fort Wayne boys' barracks this week.

They also took noonday mess with the boys and enjoyed the meal. Both contributed liberally to the 65th company mess fund.

In the first raffle in which many of the provisional training battalions were broken up the 17th Battalion, of which the Fort Wayne companies are members, escaped and remains intact at present.

Through the process of breaking up some of the battalions the 17th battalion was fortunate in securing three more competent and efficient officers. They are Captain Russell J. Ryan, Lieut. H. S. Bell and Lieut. H. E. Scott. The men have worked under them several days and have become attached to them as much as they had to the officers under arriving here.

Unusual phenomena attracted the attention of the Fort Wayne men Tuesday evening. It caused much discussion and argument. Just at sunset three sun dogs termed by some as "war dogs" were plainly visible in the western horizon.

The men were still talking about this happening when one discovered that a large cross was visible in the eastern skies. The moon was just coming up and as it was well on its way across the heavens a streak of light passed through the moon vertically and a shorter one through it horizontally. The figure was a perfect imitation of a large cross. A few advanced the theory that the days of the earth were numbered.

When several of the provisional training battalions were broken up several Fort Wayne commissioned officers were also moved. Included in the list are: Lieutenant Carl W. Lauman, from the Thirtieth to the Twenty-first; H. K. Koenig and Wade Reed from the Thirtieth to the Twenty-third.

WABASH STOCKHOLDERS
IN ANNUAL MEETING

Will Be Held in Leonard,
Rose & Zollars' Office
Next Tuesday.

An assemblage which will represent great wealth will be the meeting of the stockholders of the Wabash which takes place in the office of Leonard, Rose & Zollars, the local attorneys of the company, next Tuesday. This will be the annual meeting of the Wabash stockholders and at it will occur the election of the directors, and later the appointment of the officials of the company. It is not believed there will be any important changes in the directorate or in the company official roster. J. C. Otteson, of New York, vice president and secretary of the company, will arrive in the city Monday morning and open headquarters at the Hotel Anthony to attend to the preliminary business attending the meeting of the stockholders. President E. F. Kearney will be in attendance at the meeting Tuesday. This will be the second time the Wabash held its annual stockholders' meeting in Fort Wayne. Formerly they were held in Toledo.

RIFLE CLUB CONTEST.

Will Shoot for a Silver Cup Offered by President Wagner.

On Sunday, October 14, about forty members of the Rifle club will contest for a silver cup offered by the president of the club, E. A. Wagner. There will be three ranges in use, one of 200 yards for rapid fire and two of 500 yards each for slow fire. The contestants will have their own handicaps and if the handicap, plus the score exceeds the possible score of 150, the marksman affected will be penalized to double the amount of the score over 150. He will not be allowed to examine the score card until after the contest and will be kept in ignorance of the result until the "shoot" is over. This will be the third president's cup offered the best marksmen in the club. The first was offered by Dr. G. M. Leslie and won by E. A. Wagner and the second was offered by E. A. Barnes and won by George R. Gavahn. The winners of those cups will not be permitted to contest for other president cups. The club has 200 members and all are expected to be on the range to witness the contest October 14. The greater portion of the club members are officers and employees of the General Electric works, but there are men in all walks of life in the club.

RAZING OLD BUILDINGS.

Two of the Original Parts of Old Electric Works Doomed.

A scene which in activity equals one of the battlefields in Flanders centers about buildings 4 and 5 of the General Electric works. These buildings are being razed to make room for a modern five-story and basement factory building, the excavation for which is now in progress. Harry Offutt has the contract of removing the old buildings from the ground and this morning he put an army of men and teams at the work and it will be completed in a few days. These old buildings have an interesting history. They were a most important part of the original plant of the Electric works. No. 4 was the home, on the first floor, of the arc testing department, Foreman George Wood; on the second floor of the switchboard stockroom, Foreman Carl Roberts, and on the third floor, of the meter parts department, Foreman Fred Bierbaum. No. 5 building housed on its first floor the grinding department, Foreman Cash Lutz; on the second floor, the switchboard department, Foreman Ed Steinau, and on the third floor, the meter base grinding department, also under Foreman Fred Bierbaum.

MR. KEERAN COMING HOME.

Was Hurt Worse Than Reported in Wabash Wreck.

William H. Keeran, of 901 Columbia avenue, one of the victims of the wreck near Toledo on the Wabash road Wednesday night, was injured worse than reported. One of his shoulders was broken and his collar bone was also broken. Mr. Keeran did not wish to frighten his family, so he requested that the extent of his injuries be not told them. He is in a hospital in Toledo, but sends word that he will come home on Wabash train No. 5, which arrives here this evening shortly after 5 o'clock. He was out in the interest of the American Seating company when the accident happened, being traveling salesman for the firm. He was the most seriously injured of any of the victims of the accident.

ORCHESTRA ORGANIZED.

The Wayne Jazz band, an orchestra composed of ten pieces, has just been organized and can be heard in public the first time at Tanner's dancing academy next Wednesday night, October 10, when it will give a dance and reception. After that entertainment the orchestra will be open to engagement. Ralph Knapp, a member of the General Electric Works' band, is the manager of the Wayne Jazz band, and the members are Joseph Waite, French horn; Webber, piano; Weitzman and Wells, violins; Stulte, drum; McCoy, cello; Kroeman, clarinet; Steward, trombone; Gregg, flute, and Werten, cornet. All are old musicians, having been playing upwards of five years each, and all are members of the Musicians' union. Several of the members are employed at the General Electric works.

SUIT POSTPONED.

Hearing of the suit to compel the men who recently purchased the C. E. & C. road at receiver's sale at $310,000 to operate the line, has been postponed until next Tuesday. The new owners purchased the property as junk, intending to take up the rails and sell them as scrap, and immediately quit running trains over the line. Grain dealers and other shippers have petitioned the court to compel the owners of the property to run trains over it, claiming the road can be operated at a profit on the investment of $310,000.

WAYNE OIL TANK BOWLERS.

The first of a series of twenty-eight games of bowling by the Bowling club at the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump works will take place this evening at the Metropolitan alleys. This club involves eight teams and is independent of teams in the Industrial Bowling league, being composed of men in the offices, heavy and light tank departments, assembly room, inspection room, machine shop and shipping department.

COLUMBIA CITY MAN PROMOTED.

Ralph Grant, for several years bill clerk at the Pennsylvania railroad office at Columbia City, has been promoted to the position of night chief bill clerk here. He will not move his family to this city for some time. His successor at Columbia City has not been named.

"DEAR, Stop Your Dandruff by using Pompeian HAIR Massage."

"Dandruff has made your hair straggly, thin looking and lifeless. Your coat collar is always covered with ugly scales. Stop your Dandruff now. You can. Just look at my hair. The Dandruff is entirely gone and almost overnight Pompeian HAIR Massage made my hair attractive."

The success of Pompeian HAIR Massage is in its name—"Massage." It is a treatment, not merely a tonic. The massaging (rubbing) of the scalp wakes up the roots of the hair to new life. This massaging also opens the pores of the scalp to the wonderfully stimulating liquids in Pompeian HAIR Massage. Dandruff goes. Your hair will become and stay healthy, vigorous, attractive.

All that is needed is a little massaging once or twice a week. One application shows results. Your scalp will immediately feel clean and invigorated. In one month your Dandruff will be gone. Pompeian HAIR Massage is a clear amber liquid. Not oily. Not sticky. Very pleasant to use. "Greatest treatment for Dandruff in the world," says J. A. Y. Chicago, Ill., "and I speak from experience. My hair before I started using it had gone beyond the ordinary stages of Dandruff and was covered with scales which embarrassed me greatly. I have introduced Pompeian HAIR Massage to my friends."

Practically every user says—one bottle shows actual results. Get a 25c, 50c or $1 bottle at the stores and use the same.

Have your barber every now and then apply a careful Pompeian HAIR Massage. Used in over 20,000 of the best barber shops from Maine to California.

Made by the reliable makers of the famous Pompeian MASSAGE Cream and Pompeian NIGHT Cream. Adv. 3P

RETURNS FROM NEW YORK.

S. F. Bowser, president of the Bowser company, has returned after spending several days at New York on important business.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Madarius Foot, a transformer tester at the General Electric works, is off duty on account of sickness.

Pennsylvania Cabdriver George Ketchum is off duty, giving sickness as the reason.

J. Richard, H. Petrie and V. A. Mpitomus are new laborers at the Penny machine shop.

Fireman R. F. Conway, of the G. R. & I., has gone to Michigan to spend several days with relatives and friends.

Passenger Conductor Michael O'Connor, of the G. R. & I., is off duty on account of sickness.

E. J. Wie, of Cass City, Mich., has accepted employment as a caller at the Penny round house.

A. Subzda and B. Kryznika, car repairmen at the Pennsylvania east car shops, are off duty on account of sickness.

Miss V. Mitch was off duty today at the Penny east car shops on account of a friend leaving for Camp Taylor this morning.

Miss Nellie Schultz, time clerk at the Pennsylvania round house, is unable to perform her duties on account of illness.

W. F. Sprandis, Pennsylvania line-man, has resumed his duties after being off several days on account of sickness in his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Lyon are in Detroit, visiting friends and enjoying his annual vacation. Upon his return he will resume the duties of assistant yardmaster of the Nickel Plate.

C. E. Lee, a transformer engineer from the Pittsfield works of the General Electric company, is here conferring with local G. E. officials on matters of business.

F. R. Anglin, machine operator at the Pennsylvania old car shop, has resigned and has accepted a position with the Prudential Life Insurance company as an agent.

W. Boman, shop hand at the Pennsylvania old car shop, will spend his vacation next week in New York city and will probably take in some of the world series games.

H. Dieckman, carpenter at the Pennsylvania car shops, has reported for work after being unable to perform his duties for several days on account of sickness.

Penny Springmaker F. H. Gaylor and family are going to Van Wert, O., this evening and attend the Hyman family reunion which will take place tomorrow.

J. W. Patch, transformer engineer at the General Electric works, who has been in Iowa visiting his parents for two weeks, will return tomorrow and resume his duties Monday morning.

Mr. Canada, from the Portland, Ore., office of the General Electric works, is here today conferring with the managers of the sales department on business.

The G. R. & I. office bowling team had a practice game last night at the Star alleys, which developed some remarkable talent, particularly the team composed of the men in Superintendent E. H. Hudson's office.

Fred G. Duryea, the head of the operating department of the General Electric works, is making additions to his forces every day. Yesterday he added F. Scherbel, H. Bolton, W. Stuhl, E. Almon and Harry Cochran to the list.

Henry Seybold, of Logansport, will be the guest of Leo Cashdollar, of the General Electric works, over Sunday. He will make the trip in his new Paige automobile. Mr. Seybold, it is understood, may decide to return to Fort Wayne to reside in the near future.

The bowling team of the Wayne Knitting mills is arranging for a hall on Friday evening, October 13, and has decided to make the price of admission ten cents and give each holder of a ticket a chance to win $5. The details of the hop have not yet been worked out, but the committee proposes to make it a pleasant affair.

William Hessert, watchman at the General Electric works, resumed charge of the Fairfield avenue entrance to the plant this evening, after an absence of several days during which he assisted in placing furniture in position at his home, having just moved it from Chicago. He resides at 711 West DeWald street.

W. H. Fell, who has charge of the supplies in the induction motor department of the General Electric works, is in his office again after being in the country two or three days harvesting his potato crop. The yield was about twenty bushels, not quite as much as expected, but a fairly good crop on the whole. Mrs. Fell was with her husband in the country.

Buster Brown Shoes for boys and girls, shaped to fit the feet properly, at all ages.

PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.

I. Fred Walters, member of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief Association's advisory board, will complete a two weeks' trip over his territory tomorrow and Monday morning will resume charge of the Clinton street entrance to the shops. L. G. Ditton, who had charge of the gates during the absence of Mr. Walters, will resume his duties in the machine shop.

DISMAL DOPE ABOUT RUSSIA AND WHERE IT SPRINGS FROM

Russell Explains It, Saying
Much of It Comes Out of British and American Salesmen Who Cannot Sell as Many Sewing Machines, Rat Traps and the Like as They Once Did.

By CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL.

Gloomy dope about Russia and all this prophet business about the terrible things that are going to happen there are not new to me. I didn't hear much else for about eight weeks of this summer.

The anchor hardly touched bottom in Vladivostok harbor when the low-pressure contingent began to hop aboard, filled with woe and certain that all was lost. From that time until we came to sail back there was never a moment that somebody wasn't piping up in a sad wailing minor.

The curious thing about it was that they were all Americans—or English. I never knew before that the people that speak this tongue were so much much in the habit of walking on the lower lip. It gives you a new view about "the sturdy Anglo-Saxon," about "hearts of oak" and all that. Until you get the key to the reason for the overhanging gloom. Then you just laugh.

A fresh delegation of these faint hearts met us at the Vladivostok landing pier with long-drawn faces and voices of saddest import, and according to their soul-wringing tale it wasn't worth while for us to go on to Petrograd because there wouldn't be any Petrograd left by the time we got there.

No, indeed. The wicked Bolsheviks would have destroyed it and nothing would be left of Russia except a few gory and unrecognizable remains. Of course we could go on if we wanted to take the risk, but it was only fair to tell us that the bottom was out of everything. The lowest, most un-derly and most depraved element in the country was in complete control and bent upon ruin. Why, working men were refusing to work in the factories except at an enormous increase of wages and some factories had been closed altogether. In some places the banks were refusing all credit because they didn't know what might happen with such a gang in charge.

At every important stop along the line more of them came and obliged us with additional tidings of impending disaster. There wasn't a ray of hope anywhere around. The country had been given up to anarchy. Soldiers were shooting their officers and refusing to fight. Business was prostrate and anybody that said it could ever get to its feet again was a lunatic or a liar. All was lost and you bet it was going to stay lost.

What could you expect in a country where the lowest elements were in absolute control?

Some of these Gloomy Gusses were good enough to support their oral dissertations with typewritten reports that proved conclusively that leaden-eyed despair had the country by the neck. They gave statistics about the decline of business that brought tears to every eye. It appeared that scarcely any enterprises in Russia now was making more than 30 per cent, and some were in a condition so low that eminent gentlemen were actually threatened with the necessity of a return to work.

We got this stuff by the barrel every day. When we reached Petrograd it came along in carload lots. Not only business had gone to the dogs, but look at society! There was something to make you weep, indeed. Why, the very best people, the wealthiest and the most distinguished were now of no more account than the dirt under your feet. It was true, as we should discover for ourselves so soon as we began to go about. The better element was "completely set aside and Rag-tag and Bob-tail ruled."

The other day Princess Kadum-mikoff, whom everybody in Petrograd society simply adored, was insulted in the street. Yes sir, insulted; people told her she belonged to bourgeoisie and had no business to be riding in a carriage. Yes, anarchy was universal, soldiers wouldn't obey their officers and there was not a chance anywhere unless a Napoleon should come along and turn loose the grape-shot. That was what these people needed; grape-shot and plenty of it, b' George, sir.

But before we had reached this stage in our excursion Gloomy Gus had ceased to have much effect upon us because we had begun to get his number.

At a certain big city where one of these messengers came to bear us sad tidings of great woe, Jim Duncan took up his typewritten jeremiad and read it with great care. When he was through he turned to the American and said:

"Your business is selling sewing machines, isn't it?"

Gus said it was.

"And the substance of all this when you come to sift it down, is that everything has gone to the bad because you can't sell sewing machines as you used to sell them. So then you think that all the world centers on your ability to sell sewing machines. Let me tell you something. Mankind has something more important to do in these days than to sell sewing machines or buy them. And as for me, I don't give a hoot for all of your pessimistic stuff and you can take it away—the further the better."

He had hit it right. The basis of all of the complaining, when you came to get down to brass tacks, was the personal concerns of the prophet. It was either that he couldn't sell sewing machines or soap or corn cure or whatever it was that he was trying to pass off upon the lowly Russian, or else his wife was agonized because there was no more society in Russia and she just doted upon society.

Of course a financier can see nothing but trouble in the Russian situation. He and his kind for the first time have nothing to say about the government. Of course a business man that circulates only in the narrowly-limited circles of his class is ready to believe that nothing but disaster can happen. He and his class are on the shelf in Russia. Of course the foreign colony in Petrograd dares of the situation. There is no court now to prance about in and what in any country without a court?

And, of course, any person whose observation is limited to these walks of life will reflect the disappointment around him.

But that isn't Russia.

Not one of the dismal prophecies poured into our ears from the time we dropped anchor at Vladivostok, until we raised it again ten weeks later, was ever verified. Not one proved to be anything but hot air. Possibly the aristocrats and near aristocrats have learned since then a better grip upon the art of reading the mind of the people of Russia, but I have yet to be shown that they have.

Anyway, a mighty good thing for us to remind ourselves of about three times a day is what it would mean for the United States of America if Russia should collapse and that the surest way to make it collapse is to convince it that we have no sympathy with its troubles. After which the mournful ministrations of Gloomy Gus will take on a very different aspect.

SOLDIER RISK BILL PASSED

MEASURE ABOUT AS
WILSON WANTED IT

Also Revives Rank of General for Pershing and Bliss.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—The soldiers' and sailors' insurance bill, the last important measure pending before congress, was placed in form for final action today when senate and house conferees reached complete agreement, including retention of the senate amendment restoring the grades of general and lieutenant general to the army.

As the bill comes from congress it retains the house provision fixing the maximum amount of insurance allotted to each soldier and sailor at $10,000 and in addition carries a provision to raise Major General John J. Pershing, commander of the American forces in France, and Major General Tasker H. Bliss, chief of the army staff, to the rank of general. The senate voted down a proposition to cut the insurance allowance of soldiers to $5,000.

Soldier Bill Passed.
All rules pertaining to the regulations of army enlistment camps and vicinity in order to protect the soldiers from vice, were extended to naval training camps in a bill adopted today by the senate. The senate also passed bills authorizing the payment of gratuity to the widows or children of retired naval officers or enlisted men losing their lives while serving on active duty in the present war, and the compensating of sailors for property loss, while in service. The bills have already been passed by the house and now go to the president for his signature.

The Johnson bill extending the protection of state workmen's compensation laws to individuals engaged in interstate commerce, recently passed by the senate, today passed the house.

RUSH TO ADJOURN.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The senate met early today for the final cleanup of the odds and ends of legislation and other matters awaiting disposition before the end of the present extraordinary session of congress, which is expected tomorrow. The question of adjournment came before the senate in a resolution adopted by the unanimous vote of the house yesterday providing that the session shall end at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Its adoption by the senate during the day was forecast.

The administration bill permitting foreign vessels in the coastwise trade, except as to Alaska, during the war and for 120 days thereafter was unanimously passed today by the senate. It now goes to the president.

TOM HEFLIN DOES NOT STAY FOR PROCEEDINGS

House Committee Begins Its Slush Fund Inquiry, But Thomas Slopes.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Investigation of charges by Representative Heflin that certain members of congress had "acted suspiciously" in connection with the war and investigation of an interview in which he is alleged to have declared that he had heard members obtained German money "by being lucky at cards," was begun today by a house committee. Plans for hearing Heflin as the first witness were thrown away by Postmaster General Burleson, who suddenly arrived at the capital in his carriage and took Heflin away. The committee then heard two newspaper men in executive session about the interview Heflin repudiated.

Both newspaper men swore that Heflin told them in the house lobby that he had heard that "pro-German and peace at any price members of congress" got money easily at a Washington gaming house conducted by a German by being "lucky at cards."

When assailed in the house about the interview Heflin first denied that he had said it "on the floor." Later he repudiated it flatly.

WINS BROCKTON MARATHON.

Brockton, Mass., Oct. 5.—Clarence De Mar, of Boston, won the annual Brockton marathon today. Villar Kyroun, of the Millrose Athletic club, New York, was second, and Carl W. A. Linder, of Quincy, third. De Mar's time for the twenty-five miles was 2 hours 21 minutes 4.5 seconds, a record for the event.

FRIENDS FOR LAFOLETTE.

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 5.—Without discussion and without a dissenting vote, delegates to the California State Federation of Labor convention adopted today a resolution endorsing United States Senator LaFollette, asking for him the right to express the views of an intelligent minority and expressing confidence in his integrity and loyalty as a true American citizen.

ABOVE TWENTY-ONE BILLIONS FOR THE NATION'S WAR USE

Washington, Oct. 5.—Chairman Martin, of the senate appropriations committee, in a review of the achievements of this session of congress and of appropriations and contract authorizations for the fiscal year 1918, issued today, says the session breaks all records.

"The session," he said, "has been marked by a greater volume of legislation and the enactment of measures of more momentous import than have ever been considered in any similar period in the parliamentary history of the country."

Total appropriations aggregated $16,001,966,815, which with the total appropriations for the second session of the Sixty-fourth congress and the total contract authorizations for the present fiscal year, makes a grand total of $21,300,730,940 in appropriations and contract authorizations for the present year.

"Congress," Chairman Martin's statement adds, "has scarcely taken time to eat or sleep because of the responsibilities which the war has imposed."

"Any criticism leveled at the senate and house growing out of the impatience to place the country upon a war basis at the earliest possible moment," said Mr. Martin, "in my judgment, is unfair and indicates a lack of appreciation or knowledge of the enormous amount of work which the two houses of congress have performed. Responsibilities of long duration and momentous in character have been knowingly, carefully and, I honestly believe, intelligently assumed by the membership of congress."

FRENCH REPULSE GERMAN ASSAULTS

Paris, Oct. 5.—French troops during last night repulsed German surprise attacks in Champagne and in upper Alsace, the official statement from the war office today says.

There was violent artillery activity along the right bank of the Meuse in the Verdun region. The statement reads:

"The enemy attempted without success several surprise attacks during the night, especially in Champagne, east of the Butte de St. Eloi and in upper Alsace, near Mischelbaugh."

There were violent artillery actions on the right bank of the Meuse in the region of Bezonvaux and hill 354.

REAL TROUBLE FOR RUSSIA IN TURKESTAN

Petrograd, Oct. 5.—The government has declared a state of war in Turkestan, where revolutionary movements broke out early this week. The situation appeared to be becoming normal when it suddenly flared up again. As a protest of sending of a punitive expedition, the council of workmen's and soldiers' delegates in Tashkent, the capital, has proclaimed a general strike.

A Petrograd dispatch dated Oct. 1 said that Gen. Cherkes, the commander in Turkestan, had been attacked and beaten by irresponsible elements among the troops. It is reported that a temporary revolutionary committee had been organized to take all power and that people were in a panic. Russian Turkestan is composed of four provinces in central Asia, east of the Caspian sea, with a population of about 6,856,000.

KERENSKY IS GOOD AS WORD

Answers Demand of Radical Faction by Naming a Government

CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRATS IN IT

Threats of Fire-Eaters of Assembly Ignored by the Premier.

Petrograd, Oct. 4.—(Delayed)—Premier Kerensky's reply to the demand of the democratic congress that no step toward naming a cabinet be made without the sanction of the congress was a notification that before another day expired he would announce the personnel of a new coalition ministry which already had been chosen. This announcement was made to M. Tsereteli, of the main committee of the congress. Late tonight after a lengthy session of the present cabinet and the others scheduled to occupy portfolios in the new one, the following unofficial statement was announced:

Premier, M. Kerensky.

Minister of foreign affairs, M. Terestchen.

Minister of the interior, M. Mikulin.

Minister of agriculture, M. Masloff.

Minister of labor, M. Skovlevoff.

Minister of supplies, M. Prokopovitch.

Minister of finance, M. Bernatsky.

Minister of religion, M. Kartasheff.

Minister of public welfare, M. Kishinkin.

Minister of trade and industry, M. Konavloff.

State controller, M. Snyrnoff.

Minister of justice, M. Malysantovitch.

Minister of education, M. Salaskin.

President of the Ecumenical council, M. Tretyakoff.

Minister of war, General Verkhovskiy.

Minister of marine, Admiral Verderkski.

The constitutional democratic party against which the democratic congress has been in session was represented by Kishinkin, Konavloff and Snyrnoff. The portfolios of foreign affairs, marine and interior remain unchanged.

TWENTY-TWO BOYS LEAVE FROM DECATUR

Big Patriotic Celebration is Held in Their Honor
Thursday Night.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Decatur, Ind., Oct. 5.—A big patriotic celebration was given at the court house last evening, being a demonstration in honor of the twenty-two Adams county boys who left this morning, over the Clover Leaf, for Fort Taylor, Louisville, Ky.

Decatur Brief Items.
Mrs. Willis Landis returned from Lagrange, where she visited with a sister.
Mrs. Mary Wernhoff has word that her daughter, Celeste, a patient at the St. Joseph hospital, Fort Wayne, several weeks, on account of an operation on her knee, was able to sit up awhile yesterday for the first time. She will be at the hospital another week, at least.
Melvin Gallogly, of Company A, Hattiesburg, Miss., came home to attend the funeral of his father, T. M. Gallogly, which was held yesterday. He was given a ten days' furlough and the boys of his company raised a purse of seventy dollars to help pay his expenses on his home trip.
Friends here have received word of the birth of a ten pound son, John William, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearce. Mr. Pearce was foreman of the Ward Fence factory here for several years. They now reside at Kokomo.

Dr. J. S. Boyers has returned from Indianapolis, where he attended a meeting of the state board of health.
B. C. Henricks, the chiropractor, will be out of the city Saturday, Sunday and Monday, during which time he will attend the Tri-State Chiropractors' association at Cincinnati, O. He will have a paper on "Co-operation of Chiropractic and Its Results."
Mrs. H. L. Merry has gone to Mendon, Mich., for a two days' visit with relatives.
Miss Mabel Burns went to Fort Wayne for the opening ball of the Moose lodge last evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Hodgins spent yesterday afternoon in Fort Wayne.
Miss Frances Mills returned to Monroe yesterday afternoon after a visit with her sister, Mrs. John Dickerson.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ramseyer returned to Dunkirk after a visit here, and attending the funeral of their brother-in-law, T. M. Gallogly.
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tettman, accompanied their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alberts, to their home at Dayton, Ohio, today for a visit through next week, and spent several days with the Alberts at Rome City.
Theodore Snader returned to Columbus, Ohio, after a visit here with the Jos. Helm family.
Mrs. Julia Croyle and son, Hubert, returned to Fort Wayne for a visit.
Mrs. W. H. Reichart, of Fort Wayne, formerly of this city, was here on business a short time. She came to get a certain brand of medicine for her son, James, who is suffering again from rheumatism and who is again obliged to get around with crutches.
A company of friends arranged an excursion trip to Fort Wayne, where they had a picnic dinner in honor of Mrs. Eva Smith Hoagland, who leaves Saturday for her home at Boulder, Col. The party included Mesdames Milton Hower, Waldo Brushwiller, Charles Rinehart, Eli Peterson, Eva Hoagland, Burt Hunsicker, Fred Blosser and Joe McFarland.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beery are preparing to leave Sunday night for Mott and Medora, N. D., to spend several weeks with Mr. Beery's five sons, who reside there.

WE MUST STICK TO WAR JOB, SAYS NEW PASTOR

Impressive Reception Given
Rev. R. J. Gunn, of First Baptist Church.

"We must stick to this war job until the kaiser gets a licking he won't forget," said Rev. J. R. Gunn, the new pastor of the First Baptist church, when interviewed by a Sentinel reporter Friday morning.
"I loathe the spirit of war," added the minister. "My heart calls for peace. But America is in a just war, which she could not prevent. She must stay in to win."

Rev. Gunn has a special lecture on "America's Place in the World War" which he will give early in November as a Sunday evening discourse at the First Baptist church.

An impressive reception was tendered the new pastor at the home of Dr. Morse Harrod, 634 East Washington street, by the Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church Thursday evening. Fifty members of the class gathered at the physician's home to clasp the hand of the future leader of the Fort Wayne church.

Talks of welcome were made by S. F. Bowser and David Hogg, teacher of the class. Refreshments were served.

The informal reception by the men who pledge to stand behind the new minister in his every effort was especially appreciated by Rev. Gunn, who had been in the city but a few hours before the cordial hand was extended to him.

Members of the First Baptist church will hold a general reception in which all members of the congregation will have a part when the family of Rev. Gunn is brought to the city.

Rev. Gunn was chosen as the pastor for the First Baptist church to succeed Rev. C. F. Shashall after he had delivered two trial sermons in the Fort Wayne church in August. The new minister comes from the pastorate of the Central Baptist church of Nashville, Tenn. He was formerly pastor of the North Baptist church of New York city. He enjoyed the reputation of holding the largest congregations in downtown New York at his Sunday evening meetings.

The new Fort Wayne minister was born in Georgia about forty years ago. He has a pleasant southern accent. He is a graduate of Mercer university, Macon, Ga., and of the Southern Baptist theological seminary, Louisville, Ky. He is an author of some distinction in the theological field. "At Jesus' Feet" is one of his best known works.

Rev. Gunn has a wife and four children whom he will bring to the city soon. He is pleased with the surroundings of Fort Wayne. He has prepared no definite program for his pastorate in this city as yet.

GRABILL NEWS.

Grabill, Ind., Oct. 5.—Mrs. Enos Ashlemann, of Archbold, Ohio, called on her sister, Miss Ada Neuhauser, a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lantz moved their household goods into the property formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klopfenstein, who now live in Auburn.

Jesse Ringenberg, of Brinsmade, N. D., is visiting relatives and friends here for a few weeks. Mr. Ringen-berg formerly was a resident of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Levy are entertaining the former's sister, of Paulding, Ohio.

Mrs. David Klopfenstein, north of here, who was injured two months ago in an accident, has recovered sufficiently now to be out of bed.

Albert Schlatter is carrying mail on route No. 1, out of this place, during the annual vacation of the regular carrier, James Gerig.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Short and children, of West Unity, Ohio, are spending a few days here with Albert Egly and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rippey are now occupying the property vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Conrad, on State street, who moved on a farm north of here. Mr. Rippey is local manager of the Standard Oil company.

Mrs. Jesse Benjamin entertained the W. C. T. U. at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Alfred Clauser and family, of Allentown, Pa., are now located at this place, having moved here the past week. Rev. Clauser, however, expects to spend most of his time traveling as an evangelist for the Missionary church.

Henry Richer and family, of Archbold, Ohio, spent a few days of this week with his brother, Solomon and family, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schlatter expect to leave next Tuesday for an extended trip through the west and northwest, intending to be gone for a few years.

COUNTRY CLUB GARDENS AND THE INTERURBAN STATION.

CITY AND SUBURBAN BUILDING CO. OPENS FERTILE GARDEN TRACTS ADJOINING THE COUNTRY CLUB

Beginning Wednesday, October 10, the home sites and garden tracts in Country Club Gardens, the tract just opened and developed by the City and Suburban Building Co., will be placed on sale. The company announces that no lots will be sold before 8 o'clock in the morning of the specified date, but that after that hour all members of the Fort Wayne Real Estate Board will be prepared to give attention to those who wish to take advantage of the opportunity to secure these choice sites. Country Club Gardens are bordered on the north by the Huntington Road and on the south by the interurban line of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction Co., where a station has been located for the accommodation of those who buy and artillery barrage caught in its merciless swirl large numbers of the enemy who by coincidence also had been massing for an early morning attack along a wide front extending from the neighborhood of Zonnebeke to the Polygon wood. Some five divisions of the German army were involved, three of these having been rushed up in reserve to support their comrades in the front lines when the German attacks should begin.

A solid wall of breaching shells plowed through them in a hurricane of death and they lie in countless thousands amidst the devastation that the barrage left in its wake. Part of these ill-fated troops were the famous guardsmen in whom the German emperor had taken such pride in the days gone by. But those massed troops were not the only ones to suffer, for reports from prisoners all along the line indicate that the Germans lost heavily throughout the territory involved.

Ran in Terror.

At many places Germans ran in terror or were captured in large numbers as the British attack began. All day streams of broken prisoners have been pouring into the British cages in the rear. Perhaps half of them were wounded. Some were blinded and some were with shattered limbs, a pitiful sight even to those hardened to such scenes.

Taking the battle as a whole, the Germans offered weak resistance to the British advance this morning. But despite the heavy blow dealt to the enemy it was not considered improbable that they would make strenuous counter attacks as soon as they could reform their shattered forces. The story of today's fighting is that of perfect organization which worked with clock-like precision.

Advance in the Dark.

It was still dark when the British began the steam-roller advance, for low-hanging clouds blanketed the country and a light drizzle was falling. The British advance was maintained over the German front, but the artillery fire which opened as the barrage dropped was appalling. Guns of all calibers from enormous howitzers to light field guns joined in the infernal thunder which shook the countryside like an earthquake. Solid lines of vivid fire belched from the earth and from the murky sky above as the great shells and shrapnel burst along the German lines. The cut of the little hamlets perched on the ridges stood out in ghastly silhouette against the flashes and over the whole scene the clouds threw back a crimson glow.

On the left of the advance the grounds in the region of Poelcapelle were not in bad condition, except along the Strombeek river, where it was very marshy, necessitating a slow advance.

Tanks in the Drive.

The tanks operating with the troops here did excellent service, reducing a number of strongholds. Poelcapelle was well garrisoned but apparently did not offer strong resistance. The British were within reach of the town by 10:30 o'clock. Meantime others were making their way over Abraham heights, near Gravenstafel. There was some cellar fighting here but it was brief. The main trouble was encountered near the fort where the Germans had eight strong concrete redoubts. Sharp fighting followed, but the Germans finally were forced with rifles and bombs to surrender. Both Poelcapelle and Gravenstafel are masses of ruins. The latest reports show the British have swarmed over virtually all of Gravenstafel ridge.

Work Straight Ahead.

South of the Ypres-Roulers railway, which cuts the Passchendaele-Gheluvelt ridge, where the Gravenstafel arm joins it, the British were on the crest of ridge or beyond it. They had little trouble in reaching it. There was a brief battle near Holenaardshoek cross roads, which were fortified. Just north of here the Germans held a farm from which they poured heavy machine gun fire into the British ranks until the place was subdued. Prisoners were secured in Polder-boat, and reached Samoa September 29, where the news of the sea raiders was made known to the American naval authorities.

The number of the raider's victims beyond the four mentioned in the dispatches from Samoa cannot be ascertained. At least four American owned vessels are reported over due on the Pacific coast from south Pacific ports and the owners have abandoned hope of their safety.

British, Japanese and American warships will scour the south Pacific for the two German raiders.

THE BERLIN VERSION.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—The gain of the British offensive yesterday, the war office states, was restricted to a strip of land one to one and one-half kilometers deep running from Poelcapelle via the eastern spur of Zonnebeke and along the road to Beclere. The latter village and the hotly contested village of Gheluvelt, the statement adds, remain completely in possession of the Germans.

The British used at least eleven divisions, the statement says, and their losses are reported to be large. The British thrust broke down before reaching its objectives, which, the announcement says, were not as was stated, a short distance away, but doubtless were very far distant. The German troops in Flanders are praised for their heroism.

Speculators Tinkled.

Many representatives of the minor leagues were present. They were inclined to laugh at the discomfiture of the ticket brokers who seemed to have been outmaneuvered.

One important broker had but twenty tickets on sale and he had been so impressed with the array opposed to him that each purchaser was merely given a receipt for his money in the hotel ticket office. This the purchaser had to take to a room rented for the purpose, across the street, to exchange the receipts for the real ticket. These tickets it was said, were adopted so that in case of a raid the hotel might not be embarrassed.

Another speculator had but twelve tickets. The brokers received many inquiries with bids ranging from $60 to $75 for box seats, but there was no rush apparently due to the widely advertised measures adopted by President Comiskey to keep the tickets within legitimate channels.

McGraw Won't Boast.

John J. McGraw, manager of the Giants, believes that his team will win the championship but he says that he has not underestimated the strength of the White Sox.

"As for the real dope on the series, I should say the chances are about even," said McGraw. "Without boasting about my own, I will go on record as saying that two cracking good teams will play for the world's pennant. I have a strong team, and the boys are confident of beating the White Sox, but still I do not look for anything soft."

Rowland has a good pitching staff and so have I. The capabilities of the rest of the men on both teams are pretty well known. We, however, think we can hit any pitcher the Sox hit. Probably they figure the same way with us, so it is still even. It should be a hard series."

McGraw said he would not protest Eddie Cicotte's so-called "shine ball," or Dave Danforth's delivery.

"These are no games for protests, and besides I would not question anything that has Charles Comiskey back of it," he added.

WILL NOT SEE THE GAME.

New York, Oct. 5.—President Harry N. Hempstead, of the New York National League baseball club, will not see the opening games of the world's series at Chicago, it was learned today.

While he had looked forward to these games with considerable anticipation he found at the last minute that he would have to remain in New York and supervise the sale of tickets to the game here next week.

Mr. Hempstead announced that there will be no public sale of reserved seats for the games in New York. The 9,000 upper tier seats at the Polo grounds already have been taken, he said, by members of the clubs in the two leagues and local patrons who annually buy seats for the season.

All the lower grandstand and bleacher seats will be unsold, however, and will be sold on the day of each game. The gates of the Polo grounds will be opened at 9 o'clock in the morning on each day of the game. Only one ticket will be sold to an individual and the purchaser must go to the park immediately. Under this arrangement Mr. Hempstead believes that there will be little, if any, ticket speculation.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

themselves well over the crest of the ridge five miles east of Ypres. From here they can bombard the Ruelliers-Menin railroad, the principal German line of communication in the Ypres sector. In addition to the loss of positions of real importance the Germans sustained very heavy casualties as a result of the British barrage. More than 3,000 German prisoners were taken, half of them wounded. The German losses were so severe that Crown Prince Rupprecht attempted only a few counter attacks. These were easily broken up.

The course of events during the night gave further evidence of the severity of the shock given the Germans in yesterday's thrust. They kept up a heavy artillery fire during the night, but did not deliver a single counter attack. Meanwhile the British were busily consolidating their new positions.

On the French front General Petain's troops had to cope with several surprise attacks by the Germans last night, notably on the Champagne and in upper Alsace. The German efforts, however, met with no success. North-east of Verdun, where the Germans recently gained a bit of territory from the French, the violent artillery action is continuing.

The political situation in Russia has again become acute and Premier Kerensky has thrown down the gauge to the democratic congress. Contrary to the demands of the congress he has promised that he will today announce the new coalition ministry. This will include members of the powerful constitutional democratic party to which the congress has been bitterly opposed.

AS SPAIN DEALS WITH TROUBLES IN LABOR FIELD

Madrid, Oct. 5.—Five of the members of the strike committee which directed the recent general strike in Spain have been sentenced to solitary confinement for life by a court-martial. Three others were given eight years in prison and two received sentences of imprisonment for two years and a half. The two women members of the committee were acquitted.

THE MARKETS

HAY PRICES TAKE ANOTHER BIG JUMP

Top Price is Now $19—Fourteen Loads Weighed at City Scales.

Hay prices took a jump in Fort Wayne Friday, with the top price at $19 a ton. A total of twenty-six loads were weighed at the city scales, fourteen of them being hay, eleven oats and only one corn. Very little corn has been received for over a week. Wheat prices remain the same as they have been for a couple of weeks.

Fort Wayne fish dealers say that the demand for oysters is unusually heavy and this, coupled with the higher cost of production, packing and shipping, is causing prices to hold firm. The quality of the offerings is greatly improved. The dealers are expecting shipments of finnan haddie from the east coast in the next week. Prices will probably be higher.

CONFUSION MARKS TRADING IN STOCKS

Speculative Sentiment is Uncertain and Prices Are Irregular.

New York, Oct. 5.—Confusion of speculative sentiment was indicated by the irregular price changes at the opening of today's stock market. A few leaders registered substantial gains over yesterday's heavy close, while others were disposed to seek lower levels. United States Steel reacted after a firm start to its recent minimum of 105½.
Support of United States Steel, which fluctuated between 105½ and 107½, was the noteworthy feature of the forenoon and went far towards stabilizing elsewhere. Trading was broad and active in the first hour but slackened later when the market developed renewed irregularity.
Liberty bonds sold at 99.75 to 99.82.

DEATH CLAIMS

ever, as a member of the supreme court of the state he never let political influence him. His decisions and opinions were always fair and impartial. He was held in high esteem by attorneys generally throughout the state. The judge wrote many notable decisions during his term of office, the most recent being the decision in the case involving a new constitution. This decision was written by him and concurred in by a majority of the members of the highest judicial tribunal in the state. At the time of his death he was the senior member of the supreme court and as such was chief justice.

Self Made Man.

Judge Erwin was born in Union township, Adams county, seven miles south of Monroeville, on July 11, 1861, and was a son of David Erwin, one of the pioneers of this section of the state. His father came here in 1830 and with $50, earned as a teamster in the Seminole Indian war in Florida, purchased forty acres of land, lying one mile south of the Allen county line.

After completing the course in the common schools near his home, "Dick," as the judge was known throughout his boyhood, came to Fort Wayne and was a student in the old Methodist college, fitting himself to teach school. His first experience as a pedagogue was gained in this county in District No. 1, in Monroe township, when Tom Heller, afterward county recorder, was trustee, and Jerry Hillkiss, of Hometown, was county superintendent.

Seized With an Ambition.

During his seventh term as a teacher he was seized with the ambition to practice law and he obtained for his tutors the firm of France & Merriman, of Decatur, near which place he was then in charge of a school. He was a diligent and remarkably apt student and a year after he had started reading he passed with ease an examination for admittance to the Adams county bar, forming a partnership at Decatur, April 1, 1887, with J. Fred France, later clerk of the supreme court, who was then also just entering upon his career.

Elected to the state legislature in 1890 to represent Adams and Jay counties, Judge Erwin made such a favorable record that he was chosen again two years later. He was appointed county attorney in 1891 and served until 1896, and in 1900 he was nominated and elected judge of the Adams circuit court.

During the six years that Judge Erwin was on the bench his impartial decisions were reversed but twice by the appellate court and not at all by the supreme court. As an attorney he had been in but two cases that were carried to the supreme court that he did not win.

On 1908 Judge Erwin came to Fort Wayne and soon built up a big practice.

"The first case I ever won in court as a lawyer was before I had even thought of studying law," Judge Erwin told a friend one time. "I had driven to mill at Monroeville and found that Homer Castleman had been arrested on a charge of assault and battery. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Shaffer and I volunteered to act as his counsel. The evidence was heard and I made my plea and my client was acquitted."

Prominent Mason.

Judge Erwin was a prominent Mason, being a member of Sol D. Bayless lodge, No. 353; of thirty-second degree Scottish Rite Mason; Knight Templar and a Shriner. He was a Knights of Pythias, besides belonging to a number of other secret orders. The judge also was a Methodist.

Judge Erwin was married at Monroeville, January 17, 1883, to Miss Luella A. Waas, who together with five children survive him. The children are Dr. Harry G. Erwin, of Hometown; Mrs. Mabel Allison, wife of Robert Allison, of Indianapolis; Richard W. Erwin, of Indianapolis; David Erwin and Miss Francine Erwin, who reside at home.

Do You Go Home for Lunch?

Of the thousands of Electric Works, Wabash, and Dudlo employees, how many are denied the privilege of eating their noon lunch at home? Isn't it more healthful to walk six blocks to a good warm dinner than to eat a cold lunch in the factory? Isn't it more pleasant and convenient for the wife to set the extra plate for you rather than to pack a lunch day after day?

News of Autumn Arrivals

—Women who pay close attention to the details of dress will find much to delight at the Neckwear Section.

—Handsome filet collars have just been received, in the genuine and clever imitation also many satin stocks and satin Tuxedo rolls are just in.

—At the Art Goods section are the most fascinating things in the way of large celluloid rings for making the popular knitting bags, and a bewildering array of Japanese and Chinese tassels and ornaments to glorify these same bags.

—Mrs. Kinna is teaching many the art of embroidery silks, wools and georgette crepes in heavy yards, chemises and diction work. She is located in a bright, attractive corner in the basement where she will instruct free of charge, all the new art needlework.

—Mrs. Wilson's friends are glad to welcome her back for the season, for she brings with her all the new knitting and crocheting stitches and ideas. This instruction is free, and lessons are given on the balcony.

—The Gift Section is aglow with wonderful new novelties for gifts and bridge prizes inexpensively priced. Be sure and visit this interesting department.

Warmer Motor Robes Waiting

Wise People Are Buying Winter Blankets Here and Now!

Good blankets today are an investment, such as they have never been before. The one thing almost certain about them is that they are not going to be cheaper.

We foresaw a scarcity in the market coming, and bought heavily, with the result that we have in our possession more Blankets than ever before in our history.

But our customers are going to need every pair we own.

The prices marked on these Blankets mean a decided advantage to home-keepers.

You will find us ready to supply Blankets of assured quality, standard sizes and weights. And, remember, it was never so important to be forehanded as now.

SEE THE BIG WAR FROM A BALLOON

United States Army Inaugurates New Service at the Front.

Word has just been received today of perhaps the newest and most interesting branch of the army. This new branch of the service is for the purpose of making observations from captive balloons. The most exciting moments are when these captive balloons are picked as targets by the enemy aeroplanes, at which time the observers, who always have parachutes firmly attached to their persons, jump out of the balloon basket, even though they are three or four thousand feet from the ground, and float down to safety, while the friendly air ships immediately arrive and attempt to drive off the attackers from the unoccupied balloon.

To those who were unable to gain admission in the officers' training camps, for one reason or another, this is your opportunity. The government wants men of the caliber of officers for the United States army and they must be between the ages of 25 and 35 years. The lowest rank is first lieutenant, with pay of $2,000 per year and 50 per cent. extra when in active service. This is an opportunity for well educated men, preferably graduates of technical colleges, with athletic training, who have had broad experience and who have demonstrated their reliability and accuracy of observation. The course of instruction is a little over two months. Those who are successful in passing the examination for commissions will be sent immediately to France and put into action at once. It is suggested that those interested get in touch with Captain E. H. Kilbourne, local branch chairman of the military training camp association, who has application blanks for distribution and details concerning this new branch of the service, which is bound to become very popular. Only a limited number of applications can be received for this branch, therefore, if you are going to investigate this proposition do so at once.

Bad Complexions Peeled Off at Home

The girl with the poor complexion complains, "I have to touch up my cheeks. I am sallow and a sight, and only my make-up saves me." Now, as a matter of fact, more women spoil their good looks than improve them with cosmetics. The practice certainly is unnecessary, now that the virtues of ordinary mercurized wax as a beautifier have become known. It has been found that the wax has wonderful absorbent powers. It causes the faded or discolored skin to flake off in minute, almost imperceptible particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience at all. In this way the old complexion is actually removed—like a clear, smooth, youthful, healthy skin such as no paint, powder or cream can produce. Mercurized wax, as it is had at any drug store in convenient size package, is applied like cold cream and allowed to remain on over night—Advertisement.

ST. JOE IMPROVEMENT BOOSTERS ORGANIZE Committee Appointed to Collect the Outstanding Subscriptions.

At a meeting held Thursday night at the Commercial club great enthusiasm was shown over the project of the building of the St. Joe river dam. Many talks were made by those present and every one agreed that work on the proposed improvement should start early in 1918. Treasurer William F. Ranke announced that over $10,000 had been paid in and deposited in the Old National bank.

President William Breuer appointed men to collect those subscriptions still outstanding. These men are: E. E. Greist, Pennsylvania shops; J. B. Stager, Bowser Oil Tank works; J. B. Miller, the General Electric works; Max Miller, Wayne Knitting Mills; Richard Ball, Rolling Mills; Al Wolf, St. Joe Athletic club. The collectors for the remaining factories will be announced later.

Secretary Carl Getz read several letters from different construction companies who were willing to submit plans for the construction of the dam. The secretary was instructed to prepare a list of the subscriptions still outstanding in the various factories.

Louis Centlivre informed the members that he had erected expensive machinery above the State street bridge to secure gravel from the river to be used in the construction of the dam.

REPUBLICANS MEET.

A smoker was held Thursday evening in the republican headquarters, on East Berry street. Chairman Clappham was the principal speaker.

Italian farmers have been ordered to make a declaration of the wheat, rye, barley and oats crop this year.

FALL PROVES FATAL TO FRED SWARTZ

Former Fort Wayne Man Dies from Injuries Received Few Days Ago.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 5.—As the result of injuries received some days ago in a fall of thirty feet from the roof of the Garrett hospital, Fred Swartz, 56 years old, died early this morning. Swartz's home was in Hartford City, but he was working for the Gerding and Auman Brothers' company, of Fort Wayne, who had the contract for repairing the roof at the hospital.

The deceased was born August 6, 1861, in Fort Wayne. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swartz. He was married and had gone to Fort Wayne but recently to take employment. He is survived by the widow, one child, mother, Mrs. Catherine Swartz, 224 East Butler street, Fort Wayne, and three brothers and four sisters.

LABORERS ON STRIKE.

Laborers employed on the $75,000 high school building at Decatur went on strike Thursday, demanding thirty-five cents an hour. Strike breakers may be imported. Work on the building has been held up.

Uric Acid Poisoning!

The most eminent physicians recognize that uric acid stored up in the system is the cause of rheumatism, that this uric acid poison is present in the joints, muscles, or nerves. By experimenting and analysis at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. Pierce discovered a combination of native remedies that he called Anuric—which drives out the uric acid from the system, and in this way the pain, swelling and inflammation subside. If you are a sufferer from rheumatism, backache, pains here or there, you can obtain Anuric at any drug store and get relief from the pain and ills brought about by uric acid; or send Dr. Pierce 10c. for trial pkg. Anuric which you will find many times more potent than lithia and eliminates uric acid almost as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you. Anuric is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints.

OLD-TIME REMEDY MAKES BLOOD PURE.

Elkhart, Ind.—"When I was a girl just coming into womanhood I suffered greatly. I became weak and nervous, in fact, all run-down in health. In addition to this I had a breaking-out all over my body. At times it would act like eczema and then again it seemed that it was scrofula. I could not get anything that did me any good until my mother began giving me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his Golden Medical Discovery. They proved to be just what I needed as I have never had any more womanly trouble, and they also cured me of the breaking-out on my body. I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Pierce's medicines since they did so much for me."—MRS. GEO. FLENNER, 403 E. Jackson St.

WHAT LED TO TRAGIC

BATTLE OF FACTIONS

Boss Fought Boss for Philadelphia's Old Bloody Fifth Ward.

(Staff Special.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 5.—The Vane brothers are the most important cogs in the republican machine now controlling Philadelphia. At one time, when they started out, they tained with the Penrose faction. Now they are in control of the anti-Penrose gang, and have a firm grip on the municipal legislative body.

State Senator Edwin H. Vane, named the other day as the man "higher up" in the importing of gun-men, is the real leader. His brother, Congressman William S. Vane, who was named as the man who would take care of the financial end of the transaction, is Boss Ed's first lieutenant. City contracts have made millions of dollars for both brothers.

Mayor Thomas B. Smith, arrested on a charge of "conspiring to control political movements, and in execution of said conspiracy to commit assault and battery and murder," is a Vane man.

The hearings and arrests are results of the battle for political control of the "Bloody Fifth" ward in which the Penrose-McNichol faction defeated the Vane, electing James A. Carey to the select council over the Vane candidate, Isaac Deutsch. It was in speaking of this ward that Mayor Smith remarked "clubs will be trump." Scores of men and women were beaten up, one man killed and several sent to the hospitals. It is now alleged that hired gunmen were imported from New York to aid the Vane-Deutsch gang in the bloody fifth.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ill., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."

WAWAKA NEWS.

Wawaka, Ind., Oct. 5.—School commenced Monday both at Wawaka and centralized school. Teachers and pupils are glad to be at their tasks.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fairchild, of Adrian, Mich., visited with relatives near Wawaka, Sunday and Monday, en route to Niles, Mich.

The condition of Mrs. Huston is better and hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ullery were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Foulk, of Albion.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ecker entertained E. D. McIntire and wife and Sam Yoder and wife, Tuesday.

The "Half Century Store"

believes in keeping business prosperous during the war and of uncomplainingly handing over to the government whatever share of the profits of business it may demand for the good of the boys in khaki and for the successful prosecution of the war, and a goodly share of the profits not taken ought to go into Liberty Bonds. Just in that spirit we feel very good in announcing that our sales in September this year exceeded those of any September in the fifty years' history of our store. Foster's.

RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF BENJAMIN LEHMAN

Passed by the Board of Directors of the Commercial Club.

The board of directors of the Commercial club at a meeting yesterday noon, passed the following resolutions on the death of Benjamin Lehman:

"In the death of Benjamin Lehman, the Commercial club mourns the death of one of the members of its first board of directors who, for the seventeen years of the club's existence, was a loyal and useful supporter of this club and its activities.

"The present board of directors desire that our records show an expression of our appreciation of our departed member as a co-worker in service to Fort Wayne, as well as a good citizen from every point of view.

"We looked upon him as a man of high personal and business character with whom it was a pleasure to associate and who was a real grief to part. We feel that this city has sustained the loss of a positive factor for good in the commercial way, and we regret exceedingly that death should claim at fifty-six a man who gave every promise of continued usefulness until the allotted three score and ten.

"We extend our deepest sympathy to the widow and children and to others near and dear to him. We devotedly wish that God, in His Providence, might have granted longer life, but with them we take refuge and comfort in the memories of the personal charm of character that absence cannot destroy.

"The secretary of the club is hereby instructed to spread this testimonial of record on the minutes of the club, and offer it to the papers of this city."

The resolutions were signed by a committee composed of C. R. Lane, J. Ross McCulloch and L. F. Curdes.

You have admired the newspaper pictures of West Brook View. Why not take a little time and see the real landscapes? They're as close to the court house as Swinney park.

Police Court Blanked Day After Whisky Price Raised.

What is police court without a case? It is a brief affair of three seconds with the only sound being the ring of the ball's gavel.

City court Friday morning was caseless. Not a name appeared on the docket and not a prisoner sulked in the culprits' row. Court met and adjourned again.

It has been seven years since the Fort Wayne court witnessed such procedure. The last voiceless session was during the judgeship of Frank Munro, who has since been elected to the bench.

Judge Z. W. Kerr, who has presided over the Barr sessions for nearly four years, has never known a three-second court assembly before.

Judge Kerr did not preside over the imaginary court between the gavel shocks Friday morning. He stood by the side of the court bailiff while Leroy Swart, deputy city clerk, posed in plastic dignity in the judicial seat. There was just a moment of silence and cigars were lighted.

Why the voiceless session should follow the raise in whisky prices is somewhat of a mystery which sociologists might do well to ponder over. Why such a session should come with the coldest day of fall has not yet been explained. Why everybody walked the way of order Thursday evening may be the promise of a new era for the city.

A public meeting of the Red Cross knitting department was held at the K. of P. hall Tuesday afternoon. Instructions concerning the knitting and yarn were given those wishing to knit for the Red Cross. A number of ladies have been meeting at the S. E. Miner home for instructions, but in order to interest the public more, meetings will be held at the room given by the K. of P. lodge every Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TO CONTROL GOLD SHIPMENTS.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The federal reserve board announced today that in line with its policy of controlling gold exports, it had requested, through the federal reserve banks all national and state bank trust companies and private banking firms to furnish a full statement of the gold earmarked for foreign account with a statement of the conditions under which it was received. The earmarking of gold for foreign account is regarded by the board as tantamount to the exportation of gold. In the general interest it requests that no gold be earmarked for foreign account except upon the approval of the board.

The humming bird is pugnacious and will attack birds larger than itself, especially if the intruder approaches its nests. The nest, built in trees, shrubs or reeds, is constructed of slight materials—cotton-wood, vegetable down and spiders' webs. Of the smaller species the eggs are never more than two. They are white and about the size of pens.

Consel O. G. March, of Progresso, Mexico, reports that there is a possible opening in Yucatan for American water distillers, as the water found in the wells in that district is saline or blackish, and at the present time rain water is caught and stored in a primitive fashion for drinking purposes.

HAIR COMING OUT?

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Advertisement.

NOW IN ARTILLERY.

Kendallville, Ind., Oct. 5.—The first and second battalions of the Third Indiana have been organized into artillery, regimental field officers, chaplain, headquarters company and the supply company will remain the same with Major Guy J. Shughness, of Angola, in charge of the first battalion. Company D of Kendallville, and Company A of Albion, have been transferred as a body to Battery A, 137th field artillery, in command of Capt. George L. Foote, of Albion, with J. D. Pfeiffer, of this city, and Milo D. Snyder, of Albion, as first lieutenants. Such is the information received today in telegrams and reports from Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss. The telegrams received here today by T. A. Redmond are in reply to a petition sent to the army officials at Camp Shelby asking that if possible Company D not be disintegrated.

ARRIVES SAFELY.

Kendallville, Ind., Oct. 5.—"Arrived safely." These were the words contained in a cablegram received today by Ralph Ihrie from his brother, Lieut. Everett Ihrie, who is on his way to France, where he will take a three months' training course and make observations in military maneuvers. Lieut. Ihrie was one of Kendallville's young men in training at Fort Benjamin Harrison at the first officers' school and upon getting his commission was detailed to France. It is believed the cablegram was sent from England from where he will sail for France.

DRIVERS FINED.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 5.—James Wagner, of Jackson township, and Calvin Thompson, of Clay township, were each fined $1 and costs, amounting to $10.30, in each case, in the court of Justice of the Peace T. R. Norf for not taking precaution at a railroad crossing while driving school wagons. Both men pleaded guilty to having drove across the tracks of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad without having had some one go ahead and report the track clear.

ABLE TO SIT UP.

Decatur, Ind., Oct. 5.—Mrs. Mary Wennhoff has word from the St. Joseph hospital, Fort Wayne, that her daughter, Celeste, who has been there several weeks, since having an operation on her knee, was able to sit up a little while today for the first. She is getting along as well as can be expected, but her stay at the hospital will be lengthened another week.

MUCH WHEAT SOWING.

Portland, Ind., Oct. 5.—Jay county farmers have sown about 20 per cent more wheat than in former years. The farmers state that if they get rain in the near future that fully 20 per cent more will be sown and that Jay county should produce the largest wheat crop ever produced.

BLUFFTON MAN NAMED.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 5.—James W. Seale, of this city, was elected a member of the executive committee of the Indiana state conference of Charities and Corrections at the closing session of the meeting in Laporte. James A. Collins, of Indianapolis, was elected president.

WELLS COUNTY ALLOTMENT.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 5.—Wells county is called upon by the government to buy $94,400 worth of the new liberty bonds of the United States. In making the allotments to the counties two elements were taken into consideration, the population and bank resources, each on a 50 per cent basis.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.

Huntington, Ind., Oct. 5.—An employment bureau has been established in connection with the high school and everybody wishing help after school hours and on Saturdays has been asked to communicate with the bureau.

ASHLEY COUPLE WED.

Hillsdale, Mich., Oct. 5.—Jesse W. Camp and Mrs. Catherine Millard, both of Ashley, Ind., were married at Ray, Branch county, on Sunday by Rev. Karl R. Thompson. They secured their license in Hillsdale.

BUTLER NEWS.

Butler, Ind., Oct. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Terrill and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Waldron, Mich., returned home after a short visit with Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Shape.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Underhill, Mr. and Mrs. John Lowe, Mrs. M. F. Long, Mrs. Margaret Aldrich, Nora Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Waz Mutsfeld, Mrs. Lawrence Sewell and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Mutsfeld.

John Hamilton, Rev. Shape, Mr. and Mrs. C. McClintock, C. E. Brown and family, Fred Showalter and family, Mrs. Henry Showalter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown, C. Zantz and family were among those from Butler who attended the fair at Auburn Thursday.

Mrs. H. Keefe and son, Donald J., and Miss Hazel Dove returned home today from Fort Wayne, where they were the guests of Mrs. Kooter's sister, Mrs. Chas. Stauffer.
Miss Florence Miller, daughter of Wm. Miller and wife and George C. Sucher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sucher, were married at the Christian parsonage Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock by the Rev. F. A. Shape. Both parties have been married before.

Mrs. Ida Grandy, of Edgerton, Ohio, spent one day this week in Butler with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gunshouser.
The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. T. J. Kniesly, Wednesday afternoon: President, Mrs. Margaret Aldrich; secretary, Nora Brown; treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Brown. During the past year the club members have carried 125 bouquets to sick and shut-ins, have given in donations groceries, clothing, etc., $58.92, and have made 301 calls on shut-ins and sick. They have enjoyed four potluck dinners, two motor trips and one house party at Hamilton lake during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Stone motored to Auburn Thursday and spent the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Stone, and took in the fair.
Mrs. Wesley Husselman attended a county W. C. T. U. convention at Auburn Wednesday. Mrs. Husselman has served for the past year as county president of the organization. Elizabeth Stanley, state vice president, was present at this meeting and gave an address.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kniesly will leave

Friday for Cleveland, Ohio, to spend a few days with their daughter, Mrs. James Rollo Wiley and family.

Thursday evening Mrs. D. H. Kniesly, of Medina, Ohio, arrived in Butler and went to the home of her brother, W. A. Mason, where to her surprise she found the house full of her friends, members of the G. O. P. club of which she is a member. A splendid potluck dinner was ready to be served and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Mrs. Kniesly will spend several days visiting Butler friends.
Harvey Phelps and Gus Schram, of Butler left Thursday morning for Auburn, where they were ordered to report, having been called in the draft. They left for camp at 10 o'clock Friday morning. The members of the W. R. C. presented, each boy with a box full of good eats before they left.

NOT MUCH TO CHOOSE AS BETWEEN THE TEAMS THAT WILL FACE EACH OTHER IN BIG SERIES

Dope Shows the White Sox and Giants to Be of About Equal Offensive and Defensive Strength—What Records Show for the First Line-Up.

New York, Oct. 5.—When the Chicago Americans and the New York Nationals, respective winners of their league championships, meet in the opening game of the 1917 world series at Comiskey park, Chicago, tomorrow, the contest will bring together teams of virtually equal offensive and defensive strength. So far as it is possible to ascertain in advance there is little if any advantage in favor of one or the other combination. An analysis of the work of the individual players and the team as units shows that if there is a preference in one division this margin of strength is counterbalanced by the opponents' edge in another department of play.

Both the White Sox and the Giants are clubs of unusual calibre with brilliant young players holding down certain positions while older and veteran professionals scattered throughout the combinations, steady the teams and give that touch of experience necessary to perfect any machine. If there is any outstanding advantage which will count in the contests of the next few days it may be that the preponderance of players who have taken part in previous world series will favor the New York Giants. Even this is problematical, however, for the history of this baseball classic is not wanting in examples credit for the year. Schupp is a left-where youthful players, unnoted by fame, have proved the stars and deciding factors in the battle for the interleague championship.

From every angle of comparison the conclusion is reached that the series about to begin will prove one of the most exciting and closely fought since these contests were taken in charge by the national commission in 1905, and made an annual climax to the baseball season. A study of the records of the players and the teams in their respective leagues develops the fact that so far as figures and averages can disclose there is little margin of advantage for either club. Taking the personnel of the teams as they are expected to enter the battle, the statistics show that the Giants are a trifle stronger in hitting while the White Sox have a few points the better of the fielding. The National league standard appears to have the edge in double plays but the Chicago combination offsets this with more stolen bases, indicating greater speed upon the base lines.

It is one of the axioms of world series play that the winning of the first game carries great weight than the mere numerical value of victory, and for this reason it is customary for the managers of the rival teams to send their best pitcher to the mound in order to gain the lead and have the same twirler available for the third, fifth, even seventh game should the occasion arise. For this reason the general expectation is that Manager Rowland will select Cloutte to face the Giants while Manager McGraw will depend upon Schupp.

Both these twirlers are among the star pitchers of their leagues, with remarkable records for the pennant season just closed. Cloutte is a right hander with a pitching average of .657, earned runs per inning of 1.54, and close to 150 strikeouts to his handers with a pitching average of .731, earned runs per inning of 1.52 and a knockout record which at least equals Cloutte's. With these sensational hurlers working in the initial game and the other divisions of the teams as evenly matched as the accompanying figures would appear to indicate, it can easily be understood why the adherents of the rival clubs are loath to offer odds in financially backing their belief that the home combination will capture four of the seven games necessary to clinch the championship.

For the First Line Up.

The appended tabulations show the record, for the greater part of the 1917 season, of the players who are expected to participate in the opening game. The order of arrangement, however, is not the same as will appear in the batting order for the initial contest:

GREAT CARD OUT IN LEXINGTON RACES

Classics for Youngsters Feature Day of the Harness Meet.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—The Bluegrass stake for 2-year-old pacers, the Lexington for two-year-old trotters and the Transylvania, unfinished from yesterday, were the chief attractions at the Grand Circuit meeting here today.

Until Bator Lou and Barlight defeated him on the opening day, Peter Nash, 2:01 1/2, was regarded as the logical winner of the Bluegrass stake, but now it appears as if the race would be an open affair. Twenty-four horses are eligible to start.

The Lexington, which is to have its forty-first decision, also has twenty-four eligibles. Included in the eligible youngsters are Peter June, Miriam Guy, "Traction," Our Mary and Ruth Maines. In the $5,000 Transylvania stake four heats were trotted yesterday and four different horses won heats. Early Dreams, the favorite, who won the second heat, stands best in the summary. Other heat winners are Royal Mac, Ross B. and Ima Jay. Summary of yesterday's races:

TRY OUT HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL TOSSERS

Promise of Good Material in Inter-Class Line Ups.

Coach Russell Wright is giving the basket ball aspirants at the high school a series of preliminary workouts before calling a first string squad for the coming season's campaign. The early workouts are class affairs with the seniors and juniors having taken a trial apiece at the James H. Smart school gymnasium.

Among the seniors the variety material looks to be from Ralph Wilkins, who played at center in a part of last year's games; Moellering, a substitute guard last season, and Woodard and Feis, who were sub last winter.

Russell Klingler, who played with the Auburn team last year and who is now in the Fort Wayne high school, looks to have a likely chance for the first line quintet.

The juniors offer the following candidates for variety line up: Elmer Wilkins, a forward; Jones, forward, and Lachot.

There will be practice by the sophomores and freshmen later. Several inter-class contests may be staged before the varsity squad is called. Coach Wright thinks this plan the best way of getting a bead on the most likely tossers.

Reserve your lots in West Brook View NOW. The general sale opens Saturday, October 13.

BACHELORS BOOSTED BY PORTLAND PAPER

Will Play First Football Game of Season There Next Sunday.

The Portland Sun gives the Fort Wayne Bachelors, one of the city's strongest independent football teams, a big boost. The Bachelors will play the Portland team next Sunday afternoon. The Sun says:

"A large crowd is expected at the game owing to the fact that the Portland team has been reorganized and the members are practicing hard this week."

"The Fort Wayne team is one of the fastest in the state and is putting up a fast game this year. They have three of the former Friar players in the lineup."

"Last year the two teams met twice, the first game ending 6 to 0 in favor of Portland and the second 24 to 0 in favor of the locals. Lacey is with the Portland players again this year as referee."

"The lineup of the local team for the game will be as follows: 'Portland'—Hysell, quarterback; Kolenpiller, fullback; O. Foreman, right halfback; B. Shadle, left halfback; Roy Holly, center; Witsche, Emerson and Bishop, guards; Volaw, O. Shadle and R. Holly, tackles; Penser, V. Circle, F. and E. Ewry, ends; Hammit, sub quarterback."

"The local boys need all the support the rooters can give them to aid in winning the game Sunday."

Story of Women Who Live in
What Has Become Worse Than Hell.

(Staff Correspondent, Daily Sentinel.)
Rotherham, Eng., Oct. 5.—"Nellie wouldn't give in to the soldiers. She wanted to keep straight. So they sent her off north for six months, and when she came back her three babies were gone. Lost! She'll never see them again!"

That is a paragraph from an Englishwoman's thrilling story of what has been happening these days along its crumpling front. But the grim world of crushing misery on the other side of that wall of blood and flame has been almost impenetrable.

Mrs. Alma Pruvot has just been there! And now, after two years and a half of imprisonment behind the German front, in the region where battles have lately been raging, she has made her way out of captivity back to the home of her parents in the little colliery town of Rawmarsh, near here.

The story she has just told me is only one tiny human adventure out of all the war's host of horrors. But it gives one of the first stirring pictures of the terrors of the women and children engulfed by the German invasion in 1914 and practically dead to the world since.

Mrs. Pruvot, born in England, married in France, settled with her husband in St. Gobain.

"When the war came," said Mrs. Pruvot today, as she lay broken in health on a couch in her parents' home, "my husband went with the soldiers. I have never heard from him. I was left in St. Gobain with the two children we had adopted."

"The Germans came. At first they took only cakes and tobacco, breaking in and threatening us with revolvers and swords."

"Then they filled the village with their wounded. They took to Germany everything in our house except furniture used for firewood! All our food was taken, and we women were set to work in the fields. All the next summer, four days a week, I was marched out with other women, like infantry, with soldiers behind us, and made to dig and hoe."

"And besides, I had eight artillerymen in my house, to cook and wash for, and the two children to take care of. All our poultry and vegetables had been taken. Save for the American relief work we would have starved."

"We women were in mortal terror. The officers were the worst. They'd spend the night at the casino, and about two in the morning would go through the streets and knock at our doors, for fifteen minutes sometimes, asking us to let them in."

"My neighbor, Nellie X, wouldn't give in to them. She was deported. When, six months later, she got back to St. Gobain, her children had been sent off somewhere else. There was no record where. She has never found a trace of them!"

"Luckily there were big iron bars across my windows and door, and I wasn't molested."

"But one day in mid-winter I went to Amby to try to get a little meat. Coming back I was arrested by a soldier. Not having any passports, I was sent to jail in Fournis."

"Another girl and I escaped through the barbed wire. We tramped through the snow, without any food, and half clad, for two days, covering 104 miles to Charleroi, across the Belgian frontier."

"And then I was arrested in the street and sent back to Fournis! A soldier there took a piece of raw hide and beat me. You know they beat us across the face and chest. They just hit and hit anywhere they can! It was horrible. Seems like a dream, now. A nightmare!"

"And then they gave me 15 days solitary confinement. A stone cell without anything in it at all. Every morning I was given some water and a loaf of bread. That was all. And then I had three months more in prison!"

"When I finally got back to St. Gobain, the two children were gone. Nobody knows where. My husband and children lost, and everything in the house smashed or stolen. And there I lived, doing washing for the German officers, until began getting ready for their retreat."

"The women and children were all to be sent to Germany, but I found that I could be evacuated to France instead, through Switzerland."

"One midnight they packed hundreds of us into a train. They kept us 35 days in a big barracks, 20 to a room. A little bit of straw on the stone floor, to sleep on. No sanitary arrangements at all."

"Finally they took all our papers and money and sent us to Switzerland."

Lemons Beautify! Make Quarter Pint of Lotion, Cheap

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin. Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at a very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.—Advertisement.

BLAME GERMANY FOR ARMENIAN BUTCHERY

Rev. Newell Andrus Tells How Germans Aided in the Atrocities.

New York, Oct. 5.—The plan to exterminate the Armenian Christians from Turkey was "made in Germany and suggested to the Turks by German officials," and where the Armenians made a stand against their Moslem oppressors it was German officers and German cannon that broke them up, according to Rev. Alpheus Newell Andrus, senior missionary for the Congregational station at Mardin, Mesopotamia, who told of his experiences here today. The far-sighted German, he said, were looking forward to the time when they expected to gain complete dominion in Turkey and they wanted to eliminate the Armenian question by getting rid of the Armenian race.

"One of the ways the Turks went about it was to load Armenian men on goat-skin rafts on the understanding that they were to be deported, and then they were taken out and dumped into the Tigris river and drowned," he said. "This was the fate of at least 2,500 men from the vicinity of Diarbekir and its suburbs in Northern Mesopotamia."

Pleasant Pastime.
"Armed soldiers were on the rafts, which each carried about seventy-five to a hundred victims. Kurd boatmen rowed them out into deep water. Then the soldiers would drive the Armenians to one side of the rafts until they tilted and dumped them back on the river. If they tried to climb back on the rafts the soldiers and boatmen beat them and shot them until all perished."

"The Germans and the Turkish government," Dr. Andrus said, looked upon the destruction of the Armenians in Turkey as a cold blooded political move, and gave the actual execution of it into the hands of the Kurds and Turkish soldiers who went about it with the ferocity of Moslem religious fanaticism.

"At first the Turkish government objected to the German suggestion of the removal of the Armenians on the grounds that they were valuable as artisans and business men and necessary to the economic life of the country," continued Dr. Andrus, "but the Germans promised to supply men to take their places. Having persuaded the Turks, the German then left it to them to put the plan into effect."

Resisted Their Oppressions.
"But the Turkish soldiers in some places could not overcome the Armenians. At Surfa, the city of suffering, the Armenians resolved to resist deportation and defend their innocent families and their church. They barricaded themselves in their stone houses in their quarter. For ten days they withstood all the efforts of the Turkish soldiers to dislodge them. In the end they would have prevailed but that German officers brought and trained cannon upon their stronghold and forced them to flee."

"Surely such a people should not be allowed to perish. There still remain of them to be cared for 8,300 in Urfa and nearby. Will not the American people help care for them? Conditions in Mesopotamia have not been brought much to the public's attention for the reason that there has not been anyone to report the state of things there and because no report could get past the rigid Turkish censorship."

"More than 30,000 Armenians were deported from Diarbekir and its suburbs. It was some of these who dumped into the Tigris and drowned. The leading and rich men were among these. The others were detailed to dig trenches and to do other work with only an insufficient allowance of bread daily. Later they were shot in groups, who no longer able to endure the hardships imposed."

Cholera and Typhus.
"There followed an epidemic of cholera and then a scourge of typhus. Before the war and deportations the city contained some 60,000 inhabitants. The last I heard there were only 7,000 citizens left there. "Women were clubbed, stabbed or shot down on the Mesopotamian plains and left for dead in piles on the ground or thrown into old cisterns. Some, coming to consciousness, crawled out from the piles and up from the cisterns and dragged themselves up the mountain to our hospital at Mardin to have their wounds dressed."

"Some of the Moslems at Mardin took pity upon more than a thousand babies of deported women who, in passing through, left those they had no milk to feed nor strength to carry as they went on to their lingering deaths on the plains below. When the local government officials learned that Moslems had the little ones they issued an order that whoever harbored any Armenian would be visited with the treatment dealt to the Armenians."

"The Moslem therefore, secretly turned the little ones over to Christian families who clandestinely cared for them until their resources were exhausted. And now the latest information from Mardin is that unless funds are immediately forthcoming the thousand orphans must be turned out upon the street to starve."

Help Must Be Regular.
"The committee for Armenian and Syrian relief has decided that $5 a month per child will be necessary. That is about 17 cents a day. Who will add one more child to his family and reckon the 17 cents along with what he is spending daily on his children and at the end of each month send the $5 to the committee?"

Dr. Andrus himself narrowly escaped execution at the hands of the Turks because of his work at Mardin in succoring the suffering. He was ordered to be court martialed, which under the conditions, he said, meant a "mock trial and the cutting off of the defendant's head." The Armenian embassy, however, heard of the order and interceded so that it was rescinded and a decree of exile issued instead.

Dr. Andrus, who was born in New York city, and graduated from Williams college in 1884 and Union Theological seminary in 1887, spent fifty years in missionary work at Mardin.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness from eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative. These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.—Advertisement."

"Do the Job Right" is Ad-

Received.

Allen county has given one hundred more men to the cause of a lasting peace. Fifty-three brave fellows departed at 6:25 o'clock Friday morning over the G. R. & I. and twenty-five from the first city district and twenty-two from the rural district of Allen county left at 11:50 o'clock over the Lake Erie.

The largest crowds that have yet bid "God's speed" to the departing soldier bands of the draft contingents saw the young men away Friday morning. There were more than 300 people at the Grand Rapids station, awaiting, in the fog of early morning,
for the arrival of the train.

The men who went away at noon were carried on a special train. They were accompanied to the station by a large following of friends.

"Do the job right," was the admonition which many of the young men received.

The effort at smiling was carried out with varied success at the departures. Now and then a mother broke down and sobbed as she clung to her boy, but the tears were reserved in most cases until the band of friends had turned away.

Twenty-five men left from the first city district, twenty-two men from the second district, thirty-one from the third and twenty-two from the rural division of the county.

AIR ROAD TO VICTORY DIFFICULT AND SLOW

British Director of Aeronautics Points Way to United States.

By KENNETH W. PAYNE.
London, Sept. 5.—If the allies fail to smash their way to victory on land this fall, can they fly to victory next spring? Will America's vast aerial armada be a decisive factor in that victory?
To Major General W. S. Brancker, Britain's deputy director general of military aeronautics, I put these questions in an interview.
"Falling a decision before bad weather this fall," General Brancker replied, "we not only can win the war in the air, but we shall have to! We have not had enough experience, however, to predict whether that victory can be attained next year.

"Should it be, I doubt whether America's air fleet can play a preponderant part."

There has been much thrilling talk lately of Uncle Sam building 50,000 aeroplanes next spring to invade Germany. Military critics here have been declaring such over-confidence perilous and costly.

The first essential, these critics say, is that Americans realize how tremendous and complex is the building of a great aerial navy.

General Brancker has had to solve that problem. Under his direction Britain in three years has developed the world's finest air organization.

"Talk big," he said, "plan on as vast a scale as you please. But begin work on a small scale, in minute detail, thoroughly."

"In England, when the war broke out, we were forced to send practically our entire air force to France. But America can afford to go slow. She can keep at home her existing air force as a nucleus. Three years behind us at present, perhaps, thanks to your energy and organization you can catch up in a year."

"It is not a question only of organization, however. Air fighting today is not dependent on quantity only. Fifty thousand planes would be little better than scrap unless of the finest type. Fifty thousand half-trained pilots would be of little use."

"We are helping you in that respect. From our own service we have sifted out about eight Americans who had joined us as Canadians and are skilled in the requirements of today, both as to pilots and engines at least three times as severe as when the war broke out."

"Your best engine up to now has been little better than an excellent motor car engine. After the designs were complete, it took experienced automobile manufacturers here more than a year to get one of our best types of engine into the air. And it was another year before they reached the stage of really satisfactory commercial production in quantity."

"If America in producing her own new and untried standardized engine cuts that down to one year, it will still be the fall of 1918 before you can have in France an air fleet sufficient to help in a great aerial offensive, and even that hardly of such overwhelming power as to win the war."

"In the meanwhile you will have thrown divisions into the trenches, and for a time it will take all your aircraft output to furnish them with a sufficient air force for what I call 'domestic duty'—that is, scouting, artillery reconnaissance, etc."

"I do not wish to cast a wet blanket over America's plan for a great aerial assault on Germany. I believe in it fully, and expect it can be realized. I have faith in the possibility of complete victory through an overwhelming air fleet engaged in raiding, bombing, destructive work of every kind you please, behind the German lines. But, while keeping at white heat your enthusiasm, it is wise to recognize the prodigious labor ahead."

"In the air service," I asked General Brancker, "what types of boys are best fitted?"

"A good steeplechase jockey or cross-country rider is the ideal type," he answered, "but, as a matter of fact, practically any young man between the ages of 18 and 28, if alert and physically fit, will qualify. You would be astonished to learn how few failures we have. It takes in all about five or six months to turn out a skilled flying officer. It is a question of thorough-

CHEAPER COAL.

Police Will Get Fuel as Cost to the City.

Policemen will get coal cheaper than anybody else in Fort Wayne if the present plan of the board of public works is carried through. It was decided at the board session, Thursday evening, to obtain two car loads of soft coal and one car of hard coal in the next city order and to sell the mineral to the officers at the cost to the municipality.

Frank Singery, a member of the works board, will forward the money for the coal, which will be sold the city at less than $4 a ton. When the coal arrives here the police will buy the fuel from the board at the bare cost to the city.

FRENCH SHIPPING LOSSES.

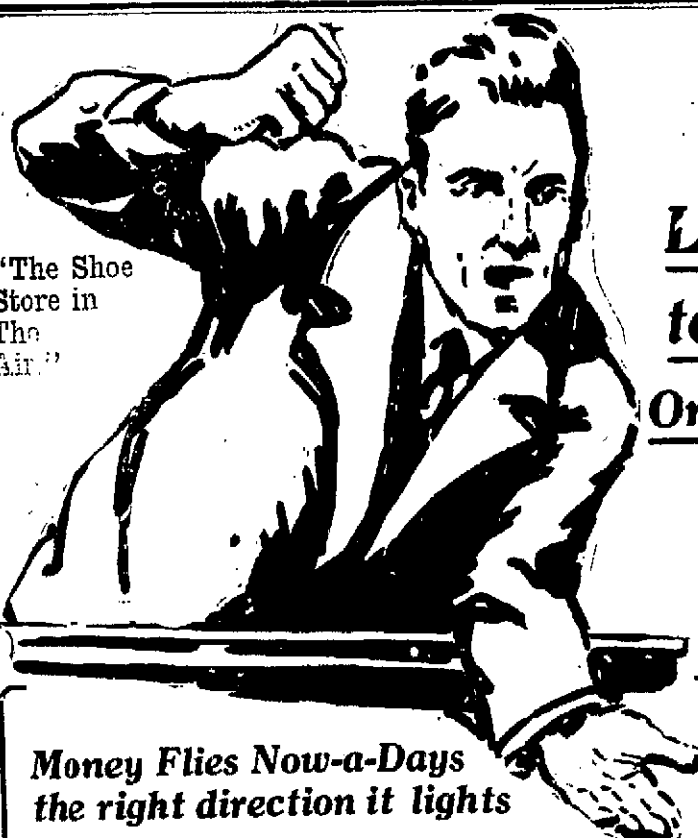

Paris, Wednesday, Oct. 3.—The weekly report of losses to French shipping by submarines and mines shows that five vessels of more than 1,600 tons each and five of less than that size were destroyed. Four of the smaller ships were lost in the preceding week. Five vessels were attacked unsuccessfully, one of them in the previous week. Six fishing vessels were sunk, two of them in the preceding week.

SUBURBAN TRADE DAY FIXED INSTITUTION

Fort Wayne Plan is Based on Real Values Instead of Bombast.

Fort Wayne has not followed in any way the method of some of the other cities which have established a Suburban Trade Day, because Fort Wayne and the surrounding territory are different from most other communities. While other cities have found it necessary to hold carnivals, free street shows and follow plans which suggest the bombastic in order to draw the crowds to the trading centers, the Fort Wayne association has chosen rather to base success upon the one idea of giving real merchandise values. The wisdom of this plan is shown by the ever-increasing crowd which have accepted the invitation of the merchants during the three weeks of the following of the plan. The Fort Wayne Suburban Trade Day is founded on the principle of giving full values as announced through the newspapers. With more than one hundred of the leading business firms associated in the event, the out-of-town buyer has the widest choice of selection. By watching the newspapers he becomes thoroughly familiar with the offerings for each week and forms the habit of considering Wednesday as Fort Wayne day in much the same way that the near-home people turn naturally to town on Saturdays. In some of the cities which have conducted Suburban Trade days most successfully, the report comes that Suburban day has grown to be a "second Saturday" which has relieved the congestion of the final day of the week and made it possible to handle the trade with greater satisfaction to all concerned. Next Wednesday is Fort Wayne's fourth Suburban Trade day. Those who watch the newspapers and who know real values will recognize the splendid opportunities which the Fort Wayne merchant offers for this particular day. The offerings made for this day will not be available before or after Suburban day, and all who wish to take advantage of them must do so on Wednesday. The growth of the popularity of the day is due largely to the practice of one pleased patron passing the word to friends who then join the army of shoppers from out of town.

Full announcement of next Wednesday's plans will be given through these columns.

TWENTY-FOUR LEAVE FROM WHITLEY COUNTY

Farewell Demonstration is Given Before Departure for Camp Taylor.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Ind., Oct. 5.—Twenty-four more Whitley county men were bidden good-bye Thursday forenoon at 9:39 o'clock as a crowd of 3,000 people stood at the Panhandle depot and waved the soldiers a farewell, while the train bearing them to Camp Taylor pulled out of the depot. Rev. Bean gave a patriotic address earlier in the day to the soldiers-to-be, and smokes were contributed by the Commercial club for the benefit of the boys on their way to camp. The train was met at South Whitley by a large crowd. The bands of both Columbia City and South Whitley turned out, as well as the school children, while the business houses were closed during the departure. Those who left for Camp Taylor Thursday are: Roscoe M. Barnes, Guy H. Thompson, William H. Oberkiser, Vold T. Hunsberger, Paul D. Pence, Harry E. Maden, Herschel C. Gray, Russell A. Bowdy, Ralph B. Thompson, John F. Hazen, Ellis E. Dowell, Frederick L. Grant, Wayne Cummins, Edgar J. Robinson, Bon Burch, Israel L. Price, Herbert W. Isay, Harry Havens, Lewis Woods, Leman S. Baker, Gilbert E. Davis, Harry Long, John B. Rouch, Glenn Swigart. The men, who were in charge of Leman Baker and his assistant, Herbert Isay, were photographed as they stood on the west steps of the court house, an hour before leaving. There are already seventy-seven Whitley county boys in camp, and the remaining forty-two will follow about October 18.

The annual meeting of the Farmers' Mutual Telephone company, was held Thursday afternoon in the court house, and the officers and directors were re-elected as follows: A. A. Bush, president; E. E. Rindfusz, vice president; Clinton Wilcox, secretary; W. H. Carter, treasurer, and R. R. Scott, manager. The directors are: Albert A. Bush, Union township; Clinton Wilcox and W. H. Carter, Columbia township; Thomas Jellison, Cleveland; E. E. Rindfusz, Richland; Mel Blain, Troy and Elma; Isaac Humberger, Thorncrest; A. J. Mullet, Washington; Irvin Kreider, Smith; Jacob Kaufman, Jefferson. A motion was presented to the stockholders to increase the capital stock from $24,000 to a figure to meet the present valuation of the plant, $102,000, in order that the present stockholders may have equitable representation in the future, in case more stock is sold. The motion carried. The Farmers' Mutual Telephone company has done a thriving conservative business, and now has 1,353 phones in service. The company during the year closing September 30, took in $22,124.90 and paid $19,375 of its indebtedness, leaving yet outstanding $10,900 worth of bonds.

JAPAN MUCH PLEASED.

Cordial Reception Given Viscount Ishii Appreciated.

Tokio, Oct. 5.—The cordial reception given to Viscount Ishii in the United States caused a favorable impression throughout Japan and has called forth appreciative comment.

The semi-official Japan Times regards the reception as unprecedented in Japanese experience in its hearty cordiality, honor and respect paid, and in the enthusiasm of its demonstration. The newspaper adds: "The embassy's journey from Honolulu to Washington has indeed been a veritable series of royal receptions in the best sense of the term, in which was embodied American hospitality and sincerity on a most generous and majestic scale, for which the Americans are traditionally noted. All this is most gratifying to Japan and the Japanese. The honor done to Viscount Ishii has been done to Japan and the Japanese. Japan and the Japanese cannot but feel and appreciate most profoundly the expressions of the cordial friendship and of the reality of war-time alliance made through Viscount Ishii."

A Valuable Young Orchard in Country Club Gardens, Ft. Wayne

SEVERAL LOTS IN COUNTRY CLUB GARDENS ARE COVERED WITH FRUIT TREES OF WHICH THESE ARE A GOOD SAMPLE.

Much interest centers in the announcement that the City and Suburban Building Co. has secured the land adjoining the Fort Wayne Country Club on the west and that the tract is now platted and developed for sale in tracts averaging 100 by 200 feet in size. The piece is bordered on the north by the Huntington Road and on the south by Taylor street and the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction line, affording quick and frequent trips between the city and the gardens.

The ground is exceptionally fertile and perfectly drained. The sale of the property will begin on Wednesday, October 10.

sneaked around the bank barn for "jes' a puff or two."

All tobacco prices will be higher in Fort Wayne in the future as the result of a meeting of retail tobacco merchants at the Elks temple Friday night. The retail dealers decided that because the government had placed an extra duty on tobacco and the whole sale merchants had raised tobacco prices in accord that there was no alternative but to boost the weed cost to ultimate consumers.

Accordingly the clerks behind the plateglass counters were asking the following prices for our favorite brands: Cigars—All 5-cent cigars, 6c; all 3 for 15c cigars, 10c straight; all 10-cent cigars, 15c or 2 for 25c; all 2 for 25c cigars, 15c. Cigarettes—All 5c packages, 3c, or 2 for 15c; all 10c packages, 15c, or 2 for 25c; all 15c packages, 20c; 20c packages, 25c; 25c bundles, 20c, and so on ad infinitum. Smoking tobacco—Packs which were formerly 5c are now 6c; 10c cans, 12c; 15c packages, 18c, or 2 for 35c; 20c packages are 25c; 25c cans are 30c; 50c tins, 60c.

Eight-ounce tins which used to cost 50c are now 60c and the former $1 are $1.15. Cigarette papers which were formerly 5c a bundle are now 8c, or 2 for 15c. Five-cent packages of cigar clippings will be 6c in the future.

MANY ARE COMING FOR ERWIN FUNERAL

Body Will Lie in State at Scottish Rite Cathedral from 10 to 2 Sunday.

Many distinguished visitors, including the members of the Indiana supreme court, will be here Sunday to attend the funeral of the late Judge Richard K. Erwin, chief justice of the supreme court, who died Friday morning at the St. Joseph hospital.

The services will be held at the Scottish Rite cathedral, at Clinton and Washington streets, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. A. G. Neal, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Interment in the Lindenwood cemetery.

The body will lie in state Sunday at the Scottish Rite cathedral from 10 o'clock to 2 o'clock.

Old friends of the late jurist in the Masonic fraternity were selected as active pallbearers, while the honorary pallbearers will include the men who were on the bench with Judge Erwin in the supreme court. The active pallbearers will be the following: Judge David E. Smith, of Decatur, who succeeded Judge Erwin on the Adams circuit bench; Dr. J. D. Morgan, of Dixon, who served in the state legislature with Judge Erwin; James Craig, George Duffee, George Buck and Harry Maxwell.

The honorary pallbearers include the supreme court justices as follows: John W. Spencer, Evansville; Moses B. Laffey, Logansport; David A. Myers, Greensburg; and Lawson M. Harvey, Indianapolis; Judge Joseph Bach, Hammond, of the appellate court; Judge Charles E. Cox, Indianapolis; Judge Douglas Morris, Rushville; Elmer DeWitt Brothers, Chicago; Judge Edward O'Rourke, Judge J. W. Eggerman, Judge Carl Yaple, Judge Walter Olds, Judge Owen Heaton and Judge S. R. Alden.

At a meeting of the Allen County Bar association, Friday afternoon, in the circuit court room, the following resolutions on the death of Judge Erwin, written by a committee composed of Edward O'Rourke, William H. Reed, S. M. Hench, Walter Olds and Samuel L. Morris, were passed:

Richard K. Erwin, is dead; after a useful life he sleeps well; the report of his sudden illness and surgical operation was a shock to his many friends. While living in the love, companionship and enjoyment of family and relatives, with the enduring regard of a host of friends, he has been suddenly stricken down, at a time when, apparently many years of active service in his chosen profession awaited him. Verily, in the midst of life we are in death.

Judge Erwin may be rightly classed with the renowned self-made men of this country; without signal advantage, in early life, he has achieved a distinguished place at the bar and on the bench. Judge Erwin was well endowed by nature with intellectual gifts of a high order; he had a very retentive memory and sound discriminating judgment, which clearly revealed to the bench and bar that he had made no mistake in choosing the law as his profession.

Judge Erwin represented Adams and Jay counties in the state legislature of 1899 and 1902 with signal ability.

We venture the opinion that Judge Erwin was not "a case lawyer." He viewed a legal proposition in the light of the well grounded principles laid down by the masters of the profession; and from such view-

Gentlemen:

In regard to the service that I am receiving from your Gates Half-Soles for Automobile tires, I wish to say that they are entirely satisfactory when the fabric of the tire half-sole is in first class condition. I have been using a full set of half-soles on my Dodge car during the past summer and have gotten a very satisfactory mileage from them.

Very truly yours,
F. W. Miles

This testimonial was received from Prof. F. W. Miles, of the Jefferson and Fairfield school. We politely refer you to him in regards to our tire.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Relieves Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it stops fermentation and acidity and sets things straight, gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Advertisement.

point, considered the merits of a controversy, and formed an opinion which he endeavored to sustain by authority. We all realize his great worth, and the loss sustained by the bench and bar of the state.

His taste for literature and philosophy betrayed a far distant view as to the march of the world in civilization and enlightenment.

Judge Erwin was hopeful and believed that the world was not losing ground, in spite of some events and occurrences that cause many to take a gloomy view as to the future.

He was true to his state and nation, true to family and friends, kind to his neighbors, and to everyone he chanced to meet.

In the county of Adams, the place of his birth, he was chosen for the circuit court and served for one term; shortly after he came to Fort Wayne and resumed the practice of the law; at the election of 1912 he was elected judge of the supreme court of the state, which place he adorned.

Judge Erwin was of a kind and forgiving disposition, a true friend, an honest man.

Resolved, That the bar of Allen county feels keenly the loss it has sustained in the death of Honorable Richard K. Erwin, that we would extend our sympathy to his bereaved widow and stricken children; that a copy of this report of the committee be presented to his widow, and that copies of the same be spread on the order book of the Allen circuit court and on the order book of the superior court of Allen county, to be in perpetual memory of the estimate in which Judge Erwin is held by the bar of Allen county.
